Germany Said To Have Suspended Armistice Negotiations Because New Conditions Are Too Severe

Continues to Complain Against British Blockade—Further Protests Expected over Occupation of Rhine Towns — Treves Dispatch States Allies Have Ordered Germans to Stop Offensive Against the Poles

GENEVA, Feb. 16.—The Swiss Telegraph Agency received a telegram from Berlin this morning stating that the German armistise commission had suspended negotiations with the Allies at Spa because they considered the new Allied conditions too severe.

The Germans, according to the telegram, continue to complain against the British blockade and further protests are expected over the occupation of Rhine towns, the expulsion of undesirable Germans and the lack of railway transportation.

Armistice Extended

BAZLAN, Feb. 16.—The armistice has been extended indefinitely, according to a Treves dispatch to the Havas agency.

The Germans are required to cease their offensive against the Poles and carry out the previous terms of the armistice until completed.

ASKED FOR MORE TIME IN WHICH TO ANSWER FOCH

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 16.—A Weimar despatch under date of Saturday, Feb. 5, says that the German government requested an extension of 24 hours time in which to reply to Marshal Foch's proposal for a prolonging of the armistice. It was pointed out that owing to the delay in receiving the armistice committee's report a reply could not be returned by 6 o'clock, as fixed by Marshal Foch.

WANTS CHANGE IN SELECTION OF POLICE BOARD

Mayor Presents Letter to Council Asking That Charter Amendment Be Sought

The further consideration of city police matters was taken up by the charter amendments committee of the council again Saturday afternoon, there having been some action decided upon at a meeting of the committee Friday evening. This action was instituted by Mayor Clarke who appeared before the committee and read a letter respecting his conference with the police commission earlier in the day.

It appears the mayor demanded that the commission place a police constable at the special disposal of the commissioners and council, citing instances where he alleged the city police had apparently not taken action satisfactory to some of the citizens. One of these cases was respecting a robbery reported at the Edmonton Printing and Publishing company. The mayor claimed that his information was to the effect that the theft of $800 worth of Victory bonds was not reported to the bank until the week following.

The Mayor's Letter.

Following the meeting of the police commissioners the mayor returned to the city hall and submitted the following letter to the council:—

"Edmonton, Alberta,
"February 14th, 1919.

"To the Members of the City Council:

"Gentlemen,—The unsatisfactory conditions of the present police administration strike me as being sufficiently well known to the members of the aldermanic board to make it unnecessary to go into details.

"Only today I attended at the police commission and asked that one officer whom I suggested should be sufficiently well acquainted with myself to be available for casual conversation on unimportant inquiries in confidence, should be placed at the disposal of the mayor's office and the commissioners. This was refused by the commission board and they suggest that the city council should appoint a custodian of city property or that all complaints or inquiries should be lodged formally with the chief of police.

"I failed to impress upon the commission that most of the inquiries I had in mind would not in the first instance be of a criminal nature, and it is within the knowledge of every member of the council, outside of the complaints that have been aired through the press of late, that the protection furnished to city property, street cars, waiting rooms, etc., has not been of the character that w[illegible] be expected from a village constable.

"It is humiliating also, to a man from Edmonton, to go elsewhere and on visits to other cities, see that the authority which is specifically taken from the mayor of Edmonton by the legislature, is left without any question in the hands of the mayors of such other cities as the elected head of the municipal government.

"Both appointed members of the police commission have privately and publicly expressed a desire to be relieved of their duties and today one of them went so far as to say that if any further authority was given to the city council over the police force, he would at once resign.

"I very reluctantly draw this matter to the serious attention of the city council with the suggestion that an application be made to the present session of the legislature for amendments to chapter 24 of 1915, 'An Act to Amend the Edmonton Charter,' assented to April 17, 1915, to remove from the commission board the senior judge of the District Court of the District of Edmonton, and the police magistrate for the city acting in the central police court and thus put the control of the city police force absolutely within the control of the direct representatives of the people.

"I again say that I think the present conditions are unbearable and unfair to the taxpayers and something should be done.

"Yours truly,
"JOSEPH CLARKE,
"Mayor."

While not endorsing the letter as a whole the majority of the council agreed and passed a formal resolution to the effect that at least one man from the city police force satisfactory to the mayor should be requested to report at the city commissioners' office each morning for special assignments.

More Control for Council.

Another resolution endorsed was to the effect that the citizens should be given more control over the police force. The city solicitor was instructed to submit drafts of practical charter amendments to this effect which might be considered. Therefore the solicitor on Saturday submitted two alternative amendments—one for a commission of three members, consisting of the mayor and two members appointed from resident electors of the city by the council, one to serve one year and the other two years. The other proposal would have the mayor supported by one member elected to the commission with a third member appointed by the attorney general of the province.

Make Recommendation

After considerable discussion at the Saturday afternoon meeting of the charter amendments committee of the city council it was decided to make the following recommendation to the council:

"Repeal all of section 1, after the words 'consist of' and substitute:

"Three members as follows: The mayor of the city. And the council shall appoint from the resident electors of the city the remaing two members, one of whom shall hold office until the first meeting of the council in January, 1920, and the other shall hold office until the first meeting of the council in January, 1921. And the council shall at or before its first meeting in January in each year appoint from among the resident electors one member who shall hold office for two years.

"(1) Notwithstanding anything herin contained, every member of the board shall continue in office until his successor is appointed.

"(2) In the event of a vacancy from any cause other than the expiration of the term for which the member was appointed the council shall not later than its second meeting after any such vacancy occurs appoint a successor for the remainder of the term becoming vacant.

"Alternative—Three members as follows:

"a) Mayor of the city;

"(b) One member to be elected at the annual election in each year (who shall be any resident elector);

"(c) The mayor and elected member shall take and hold office for the same term as the mayor. The appointee of the attorney general shall hold office at the pleasure of the attorney general.

"(2) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of the elected member, the council shall at its second meeting thereafter appoint a member to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term."

Taxation of Incomes

Action was taken regarding the taxation of incomes in case of the income of both husband and wife. The committee decided to ask the council to consider the proposal that, where both members of the household have separate incomes, they be added together and taken as one for the purpose of taxation.

In the matter of large business houses having branches outside the city, considerable discussion arose about the taxation of the income from the branches. At the present time the taxable amount from branch business is upon a basis of five per cent. of the whole business. The committee decided unanimously to ask the council to consider the question of raising the percentage to ten.

The question of amending the charter regarding the exemption of churches and church property from taxation received heated discussion. It was proposed to bring all properly except Dominion and city property, the Misericordia and General Hospitals and library property within the taxable area. This would mean the taxability of churches and church property. The proposal did not receive the unanimous endorsation of the committee, but it was unanimously agreed to refer it to the council without being passed by the committee.

Sale of Property to College

The committee also decided to send up to the council the following recommendation regarding the sale of property to the Alberta Ladies' College of Red Deer:

"Notwithstanding anything contained in the Edmonton charter or amendments thereto, the council may upon such terms and conditions as it shall deem advisable, sell and convey to the Alberta Ladies' College of Red Deer all of block one hundred and seventy-two (172) in the city of Edmonton, as shown on a plan of parts of river lots seven (7) and nine (9), of record in the Land Titles office for the North Alberta Land Registration district as plan 4400 R."

TINY RELIEF SHIP TO BRAVE DANGERS OF THE BEHRING SEA

SEATTLE, Feb. 16.—The little power schooner Eunice, 38 gross tons register, laden with sixty tons of provisions will leave Seattle Monday in an attempt to fight her way through Behring Sea ice floes early in March and carry relief to isolated settlements on Kuskowim bay.

This trip will be attempted three months before the opening of navigation in the northern sea, but was made necessary because of the dangerous shortage of provisions in the Kuskowim district.

GENERAL PAU IS WELCOMED AT VICTORIA, B,C,

The Famous French Soldier Leads Commission Touring British Dominions

MME. MELBA ARRIVES

Denies Reports That She Is Now Making Her Last Public Appearance

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 16.—General Paul Pau, veteran of the Franco-Prussian war and the Great War, with the members of the Commission which is enquiring into relations between France and the British Dominions and the U. S., arrived here today aboard the Canadian-Australian liner Niagara. He was accorded an enthusiastic reception, the welcoming party including Premier Oliver, Major General Leckie, G.O.C., Captain Martin, Naval Superintendent at Esquimalt and representatives from various public bodies. Sir Joseph Nope represented the Federal government, and Mr. Muskett the lieutenant-governor. Mr. Gerardin, of the French embassy at Washington, and M. Francis, local French Consul, also were present.

General Pau's party consisted of M. Andre Siegfried, M. Corbiere, M. Le-Clere Motte, M. Mathieu, M. Bader, M. Garardin and M. Paradis. There are two military leaders and the others are specialists in different lines of trade. General Pau and members of his commission expressed the utmost satisfaction with their visit to Australia and New Zealand. They expected as a result a large trade would be built up between the Antipodes and France. They had the same object, they stated, in visiting Canada, and were hopeful of an expansion of trade between the Dominion and their own country. In Australia they visited many of the principal cities, going as far west as Perth and also spent some time in New Zealand.

Attends Church Service

General Pau shortly after his arrival attended the service at St. Andrew (Catholice) cathedral, and after lunch was taken on a motoring tour in the vicinity by Premier Oliver and John McLean, provincial secretary. Tomorrow the French commissioners will visit the shipyards and subsequently be guests of the Canadian Club at luncheon, afterward leaving on the afternoon boat for Vancouver.

Madame Melba Denies Reports

Another noted arrival by the Niagara was Madame Melba. "The reports that I am about to make my last appearance in public," she said, "are untrue. I hope to sing as long as my voice will last."

She intends on reaching Europe to engage in concert tours in England, France and Italy.

Lady Galloway, wife of the Governor of South Australia, was another passenger on her way to England with her daughter.

Lieut.-Col. Hurley, Trade Commissioner for New South Wales, is on his way to Europe to co-ordinate the commercial of the state he represents.

Spencer Brunton, a prominent miller of Melbourne and Sydney, and J. Kidd, a well-known financier in Australia, were other arrivals.

The Niagara had an uneventful trip across the Pacific.

GERMANS HIDE FAMOUS LONG RANGE GUN

Crews Assigned to Operation Are Said to Be Sworn to Secrecy

Paris, Feb. 15 (Associated Press).—The Allies have taken steps to obtain possession of one of the long range guns which the Germans used to fire upon Paris.

The Inter-Allied commission at Spa has made demands upon the German delivering commission that a long range gun be included in the war material which the Germans are turning over to the Allies.

All the German officers who have been questioned regarding the crews who were assigned to the task of handling the "big Berthas" were sworn to secrecy and ever since the armistice was signed, little has been known regarding the fate of these monster weapons. Recent reports were to the effect that one of the "big Berthas" had been dismantled in West Prussia, while another report from a discharged soldier said that a long range cannon had been seen on railway cars near Essen.

PAN-AFRICAN CONGRESS IS TO MEET IN PARIS

PARIS, Feb. 15.—A Pan-African congress is to assemble in Paris on February 19 for a three-day session, with the declared purpose of securing the protection of the natives of Africa and the people of African descent in other countries.

It is reported that the congress has been called by a committee consisting of Blaise Diagne, French deputy from the Senegal; Dr. W. E. B. Dubois, an American authority on the negro question and I. F. Fredericks, of New Guinea.

MEAT SITUATION IS LIKELY TO IMPROVE

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—From cables received by the acting prime minister, who has been in continuous touch with his colleagues overseas, it appears probable that the situation which has been adversely affecting the market for Canada's exportable surplus of meat products would be materially relieved in the near future.

BRANDON PUTS MONARCHS OUT OF THE RUNNING

BRANDON, Feb. 16.—Doubling the score on their opponents for the third consecutive time this season, Fred Scott's Brandon team put the Winnipeg Monarchs out of the running for the senior hockey championship of Manitoba, when they defeated them by a score of six to three before the record crowd of the season at the Brandon Arena Saturday evening. The result of the game shatters all hopes of the Allan cup returning to Winnipeg this year, as both local teams are now out of the running, and Selkirk and Brandon will decide the championship.

PORTFOLIOS IN SASK. CABINET RE-ARRANGED

Premier Martin Denies Rumor That Addition Is to Be Made at Present

REGINA, Sask., Feb. 16.—Re-arrangement of the portfolios in the Saskatchewan cabinet was completed late Saturday afternoon when the ministers were sworn in by His Honor Lieut. Gov. Sir. Richard S. Lake as follows:

William S. Martin, president of the executive council, minister of education and minister of railways; Hon. A. Turgeon, attorney general; Hon. A. P. McNab, minister of public works; Hon. Geo. A. Langley, minister of municipal affairs; Hon. Charles A. Dunning, minister of agriculture and provincial treasurer. Hon. S. J. Latta, minister of highways; Hon. W. E. Knowles, minister of telephones and provincial secretary.

The portfolios of Hons. A. Turgeon, A. P. McNab, Geo. A. Langley and S. J. Latta remain unchanged; the re-arrangement affecting Hons. Martin, C. A. Dunning and W. E. Knowles. Mr. Martin takes the portfolio of railways in addition to his duties as minister of education and president of the executive council, this portfolio having been previously held by Mr. Dunning. In the new cabinet Mr. Dunning will combine the duties of the agricultural and treasury departments. He gives up the portfolio of telephones to Mr. Knowles who thus becomes minister of telephones as well as provincial secretary.

On the authority of Premier Martin the leader is able to state that the rumors current to the effect that an addition is to be made to the cabinet circle is entirely unfounded at present and there is no likelihood of any such change for a considerable time to come.

PEACE MISSION TO POLAND GREETED WARMLY AT WARSAW

WARSAW, Feb. 13.—(Associated Press)—The peace conference mission to Poland arrived here from Paris by way of Prague last night. It received a boisterous welcome from the customarily undemonstrative people of the city, who overran the station and stormed the train in their enthusiasm to be the first to welcome the visiting mission.

Paderewski received the mission, speaking to them in their own tongues.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Has Stroke of Paralysis—Condition at 3 O'clock This Morning Was Grave

Declared to Be Slowly Sinking, by Physician — Liberal Leader Attacked by Illness in Morning While Dressing to Go to Church —Unconscious for About Two Hours—Hon. W. S. Fielding May Take Temporary Leadership of Opposition in House

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—At 3 o'clock this morning Dr. Chevrier, from Sir Wilfrid's residence, made the following statement:

"Shortly after 12 o'clock midnight, Sir Wilfrid had a relapse, there being a new effusion of blood into the brain. He took a very bad turn. Dr. R. E. Valin and myself held a consultation at 1:30. The case seems to be hopeless, and Sir Wilfrid is sinking slowly. The left side is affected. Up until midnight, Sir Wilfrid was doing very well, and until a short time ago was conscious, could understand and answer questions. He is practically unconscious now."

CONDITION UNCHANGED AT 3:50 A.M.

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—At 3:50 this morning Dr. Valin reported that there was no change in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's condition.

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has recovered consciousness from an attack of paralysis with which he was stricken this morning. At 10 o'clock tonight his condition was reported to be hopeful.

"There is no immediate cause for anxiety," stated J. L. Giguerre, his private secretary. "Sir Wilfrid's condition is not critical and for the present there is every hope. He is quite conscious and his heart is strong."

Dr. R. Chevrier, who is attending Sir Wilfrid Laurier, stated at 11:15 tonight that his patient is in no immediate danger. "Sir Wilfrid has had an attack of paralysis," Dr. Chevrier said, "he is now quite conscious, although still slightly affected. His heart is fairly strong and his condition is hopeful. I do not think there is, at present, any cause for grave anxiety, but at Sir Wilfrid's age, such an attack must give rise to considerable concern."

Two nurses are in attendance on Sir Wilfrid.

Seized When Dressing

The seizure came shortly before 11 o'clock this morning. Sir Wilfrid was dressing to go to church, when he suddenly became unconscious and fell to the floor. A maid in an adjoining room, hearing the noise, hastened to his assistance and gave the alarm. Sir Wilfrid was carried to bed and shortly afterwards his medical adviser, Dr. R. Chevrier, was in attendance.

It was a couple of hours later that Sir Wilfrid began to show signs of recovery. His condition gradually improved and he regained speech.

That Sir Wilfrid had a stroke on Saturday is emphatically denied. He attended the Canadian Club luncheon yesterday and in the afternoon was at his office in the Museum, preparing for the session until five o'clock. So well did the opposition leader feel, that he went home in a street car, instead of his automobile. Yet, there is no doubt that strain of the last few weeks has told on Sir Wilfrid's strength. There have been interviews and discussions galore.

Had Not Spared Himself

Anxious to play his full part in the session which opens on Thursday, Sir Wilfrid had not spared himself. There had further been much work to be done, too, in the organizing of the Ontario Liberal convention. Indeed, it was at this that Sir Wilfrid made his last public appearance. The occasion was the eastern Ontario convention of a month ago. Sir Wilfrid then addressed the delegates at the evening meeting in St. Patrick's hall. He spoke for almost an hour and there was no sign of imminent collapse. His voice was strong, and Sir Wilfrid outlined the Liberal platform. There was every evidence of mental vigor which in him appeared to be the master of time. "If I have but one regret," he then declared, "it is that I am not 20 years younger, that I might throw more vigor into the fight. Our horizon is broadening. Every man must do his part." And so, keen as ever to play his part on the floor of the house, Sir Wilfrid has given freely of the strength left to a man of 78 years.

In government circles word of Sir Wilfrid's illness is heard wth the deepest regret. Although differing from him on vital political issues, members of the government have always held Sir Wilfrid in high personal regard.

Fielding May Be Temporary Leader

In some quarters here, it is thought that Hon. W. S. Fielding may take the temporary leadership. Mr. Fielding was returned by acclamation as a Liberal supporter of Union government. But, now that the war is practically over, it is thought by some that Mr. Fielding may decide to return to the party of which he was formerly so influential a member. Should Mr. Fielding not feel himself in a position to accept the temporary leadership, choice will probably lie between the three ex-cabinet ministers, on the opposition side of the house—Hons. Dr. Beland, Rodolphe Lemieux and Chas. Murphy. The name of D. D. MacKenzie, Sir Wildfrid's deskmate in the house, is also mentioned. It is said that a Liberal caucus would be called within a few days.

If Sir Wilfrid is unable to resume the leadership of the party, a convention will be doubtless called as soon as possible after the close of the parliamentary session to choose a permanent leader.

Borden Demands That Soldiers Be Told At Once As To Whether There Will Be Any More Fighting

Canadian Premier Severely Criticizes Methods by Which Time Has Been Wasted Since Signing of Armistice—Soldiers, He Says, Are Amazed at Deliberation with Which Some Subjects Have Been Handled

PARIS, Feb. 16.—Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, speaking to Canadian soldiers on leave at the Canadian Y.M.C.A. here last evening, demanded that the soldiers to told immediately whether there was to be any more fighting. He severely criticized the methods by which time had been wasted since the signing of the armistice. Sir Robert said:

"More than three months have elapsed since the armistice was declared, and let us not flatter ourselves that our soldiers believe no time has been wasted. They are amazed at the extremely deliberate methods employed and at some of the subjects upon which time has been spent. They know, and before God they have a right to know, and know without one moment's unnecessary delay, whether there is to be further fighting, and for what cause and for what purpose.

"This is the urgent, stern, imperative demand of those to whose unsparing sacrifice and enduring valor the peace conference owes its authority and must consecrate its labors. The soldiers did not palter with the purpose for which they went forth. They expect the diplomats to follow their example."

CLAUSE IN LAND SETTLEMENT ACT IS DENOUNCED

Calgary Veterans Indignant at Provision for Proof of Good Citizenship

CALGARY, Feb. 16.—Strong objections to the clause in the Land Settlement act, which requires that any man taking a loan must first put up ten per cent. of the money as a proof of good citizenship, were taken Sunday afternoon at a land meeting of the G.W.V.A. at the Allen theatre. One speaker declared that the only proof of good citizenship that was required was the fact that a man had offered to give his life for his country. Great indignation was voiced in the discussion over the impossibility to get homesteads, which forced the men to buy their land from the government and after a soldier had stated that many of the grazing leases were fraudulently held, a resolution was passed and despatched at once to Ottawa, declaring that if all grazing leases are not cancelled forthwith the association will take legal action and have them cancelled. There was a general disposition on the part of men present to object to learning the farming business under farmers, it being claimed that a very short time was required to learn all there was to be learned, and that a man was far better off learning on his own land.

The meeting was presided over by President Arthur Haselden and was addressed by Comrade Oliver of Edmonton, who is here to help in forming the personnel of the qualification board which starts its sitting today.

RUSS QUESTION TAKEN UP BY CONFERENCE

May Remove Headquarters

VLADIVOSTOCK, Feb. 16.—There are persistent rumors that the Omsky government contemplates a removal and will establish its seat at Chita or Vladivostock. This removal would pre-suppose reconciliation of Kolchak and Semonoff.

CONFERENCE OF CAPITAL AND LABOR IS TO BE CALLED

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The government has decided to convene, probably within the present month, a national conference of representatives of capital and labor to seek a settlement of the present industrial unrest. It is understood that representatives of the employers and all the leading trade unions will be invited and that the premier is devoting himself actively to the promotion of this conference, which will be the most important ever assembled to deal with the labor problem. It is said that there will be a sitting before the threatened miners' strike begins in the middle of March

IN THE LEGISLATURE

W.M.Davidson Makes Strong Plea for Nationalized Health Effort

Speaking in the Alberta legislature on Friday, W. M. Davidson made a strong plea for nationalized health efforts.

W. M. Davidson dealt capably with a number of the issue under discussion, which on the whole he considered as high as it has been his privilege to listen to in any parliament of Canada. He complimented the leader of the opposition, a position which he regarded almost as responsible as that of the premier. But Mr. Davidson severely attacked the caucus course by means of which Mr. Hoadley was selected. He endorsed the statement that "the most baneful influence in Canadian life is the political caucus." Borrowed from the United States, the Canadian caucus system was made more secret by the exclusion of the press. Either the system should be abolished or the press should be admitted to allow the public to know what was being done.

The question of natural resources was also dealt with. Mr. Davidson, in reviewing the failure of the recent conference, said he hoped that by the closing of the door by the Westerners it would never be reopened by another inter-provincial conference on the same subject. The Westerner has ample statistics for the government and it should be said that the federal officials were agreed in principle to the restoration of the resources to the West and he believed a move would soon be made at Ottawa. He, however, criticised the lack of effort which federal members of the West had made toward righting this matter. He quoted figures showing that of 201,000,000 acres originally in the West, 123,000,000 acres had been alienated. The time was ripe for the provincial government to adopt a policy for the handling of these lands when they were obtained. There should be no more alienation. The lands should be developed and the mineral and oil rights controlled by the state.

Disputes Boyle's Statement

Mr. Davidson disputed the statement that 60 per cent. of the males in the province violated the liquor act. He doubted that 5 per cent. had. However, he felt that the act could not be best administered under a police commission and he wanted the government to handle the work and assume full responsibility.

"Conditions will not be satisfactory in the province until every boy and girl goes through the high school and each one has the chance to enter the university," declared Mr. Davidson, when dealing with the question of education. The universal education would be commercially of great value. Practical agriculture should be taught in the schools and more normal training was essential for teachers.

A strong plea for nationalized health efforts was made by the Calgary member. State controlled hospitals and medical work would mean a great economic gain, as well as a vast improvement in the health conditions of the state. Expense in such work was justified. Also the tubercular hospitals and insane asylums should be absolutely free. It was a reflection that the unfortunates in asylums should have to pay for their care when the rascals who went to jail were even paid a small remuneration for their work while in jail.

On the matter of reconstruction Mr. Davidson pointed out that in no direction did there seem to be any definite and broad solution of the unemployment problems and the returned soldier situation. He lamented that conscription had not included wealth. Profiteers would arouse the ire of returned men and yet the profiteers, by reason of their profits would be more powerful than ever. The federal government should make a spectacular effort in the unemployment question to rouse public opinion from the pessimistic stage into which it had fallen.

"One honorable member," declared Mr. Davidson, "congratulated the government upon its opportunity for service at a solemn time like this. I think that not only is this a wonderful opportunity for the government, but a wonderful occasion for all. It is a rare opportunity for all to live and work in a time like this, when changes of such magnitude and developments of such importance are being made every day.

"The opportunity is great and the responsibility is as great and we all must share it. I believe that every member of this house fully realizes both the opportunity and the responsibility and is prepared to sink all desire for party advantage or party gains for the general welfare. No member of this house at this time would dare do other[illegible]

"We hear much cr[illegible] these days of politicians of the[illegible]ish ways and evil, cruel deeds, u[illegible] one almost imagines them to be be[illegible]s of prey, instead of the chosen representatives of the people. I resent any such description, if by politicians one means members of this house. It is not the truth. This house without exception, so far as I know, is composed of men and women who are devoted to the cause, fully understanding the serious conditions which face the province and courageous enough to look those problems in the face and attempt to solve them."

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Your druggist sells for a few cents a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

HENRI SCOTT TELLS HOW HE WAS UP TO "WAIST IN HELL"

Henri Scott, the bass-baritone of the Metropolitan Opera company, New York, relates an amusing experience while singing in opera in Rome.

"They like their opera with all possible realism," said Mr. Scott. "For instance, when 'Faust' is produced it is an unchangeable custom for Mephisto to make his entrance in the first act through a trap door in the floor, flooded with blazing red light from the supposedly warm regions below. In the last act he disappears through the same opening. Now and then something goes wrong, as it did one night when I was singing the role in Rome several years ago. My entrance was effected smoothly, but in the last act when the trap door had descended half-way, my sword caught over one corner of the opening in the floor, and I could move no further! There I stood, with the 'homes fires' glowing beneath, up to my waist in hell. It was a tense moment, but one man up in the gallery was not too deeply impressed to see the absorb side of it.

"'Bravo!' he shouted; 'Hades is full—they won't let you in!'

"The house caught the spirit of it and roared with laughter while the curtain was quickly lowered."

Henri Scott will be heard in recital Friday, February 21, at McDougall church. He will sing in two Canadian cities only—Calgary and Edmonton. He leaves after his appearance here for New York, where he will appear in March with Geraldine Farrar, singing as Escamillo in "Carmen," at the Metropolitan, where Mr. Scott will remain the rest of the season.

MRS. PARLBY OUTLINES FARM SOCIAL PROGRAM

Speaks Impressively at the University Service on Sunday Morning

Mrs. Parlby, president of the U.F.W.A. of Alberta, announced as her subject in speaking to the University students and friends on Sunday, the awakening of a more sympathetic understanding of the conditions of moral life in order that the drift of boys and girls from the country to the glamour of the city life might be arrested. She referred to the early days in Alberta before the grain boom brought scores of people to settle on the prairies and to court trouble by growing or attempting to grow wheat. These people were brought in or allowed to come in under false impressions and no effort was made to look after them once they had arrived here and had taken up their residence on the land. Hundreds of human tragedies were enacted in the lives of peoples far from medical care and social conveniences. The governments seemed to care very little about the people in the quiet places, while the city merchants and brokers prospered in the sale and exchange of the produce offered by the farmer. The farmers saw the principle of competition operative in all grades and classes of society. It had become a fetish which had to be worshipped and preserved at all costs. Gradually, however, little groups of men came to understand that a new principle, that of co-operation, came to take the place of competition; and the small groups of men in the course of time grew into a large and powerful organization of men capable of holding its own people together in a public bond of co-operation.

Mrs. Parlby outlined the social program of the farmers' organization, which included (1) medical centres throughout the province where doctors and nurses would be available for all settlers, rich or poor; (2) re-construction along lines of education and the unification of all educational agencies; (3) more centres where play facilities would be ample and varied; (4) a re-construction of the spiritual aspects of rural life. Mrs. Parlby pleaded for "the rights of small nations in our midst" and asserted that to grow "a Canadian soul" was the immediate task of all interested in the social and spiritual welfare of the people.

BIG INCREASE IN RECEIPTS

Cattle receipts at the Edmonton stock yards during the month of January just past were 4,093 as compared with 1931 for the year previous. This is considerably more than 100 per cent. increase. The calves, however showed small increase, as 248 for January, 1919, would show as compared with 208 for the same month the year previous. The run of hogs was a little heavier, showing 4,084 as compared with 4,035 the year before, but there was a decided boost in the sheep. The figures for the past month were 2,399, while the sheep receipts for the same month in 1918 were 125. Receipts of horses for January, 1919, were 408 as compared with 67 for the year previous.

CAN IMPOSE TAX ON PLACES OF BUSINESS

Privileges of Municipalities as to School Districts Pointed out by Hon. G. P. Smith

Further powers of assessment for school purposes were the main request of the delegation from the executive of the Union of Municipalities, that waited on the Hon. George P. Smith on Saturday afternoon. The delegation headed by Mr. Jackman, asked that they should be given power, in school districts that include hamlets and centres smaller than a village, to put a business tax on business places.

Mr. Smith pointed out to them that under the present law they could already do so, by declaring themselves a village district for school assessment purposes. In this way they would have the privileges they desired.

Federal Officials in City to Provide For the Operation of Land Purchase For Soldiers

S. Maber of the interior department. Ottawa, commissioner and secretary of the Soldiers' Land Settlement board is in the city accompanied by Maj. R. J. Shore, director of lands for the board.

Their purpose is to organize and put in operation in Alberta the scheme of land settlement under purchase set out in a recent order in council, which will be confirmed by legislation at the approaching session of parliament. The terms of the order in council provide a comprehensive land purchase policy for returned soldiers. It is supplementary to the present provisions of the Soldier Settlement act which was designed mainly to make available such free lands as were found suitable for the purpose.

A limit of $5,000 is fixed for the purchase of land. The limit is of value, not acreage. If a less sum will purchase the land desired there is less to be paid off by the soldier settler in order to acquire ownership. If he desires rough and cheap land for ranching purposes and $5,000 will buy a section, the commission may approve the purchase of that area. The soldier settler is required to make a down payment of ten per cent. of the purchase price, but in the case of married men the board may remit this requirement in approved cases.

In addition to the purchase of the land a sum of $1,000 may be advanced towards the cost of fixed improvements, such as buildings, cultivation and fencing. A further sum of $2,000 may be advanced for the purchase of stock and implements. These advances are expected to be employed in the equipment of the farm as a going concern.

The payment of the purchase price of the land and fixed improvements—a maximum amount of $6,000—is spread in equal payments over 20 years with interest at 5 per cent. The board will have power to defer the initial instalments at its discretion. The advance of $2,000 for stock and equipment is proposed by the order in council to be repaid in four annual instalments, the first instalment does not become payable until the third year. No interest is charged on the $2,000 advance during the first two years.

The right of individual selection of the land by the soldier is maintained, subject to the supervision and approval of the board.

Special organization and plans are being considered for the selection of land for soldiers in Alberta.

After the soldier selects land and makes application for it, qualified appraisers of the board will inspect and valuate. Special investigation is being made into the possibilities for stock farming by returned soldiers, and the terms and conditions specially appropriate to stock farming in Alberta. The plan will provide for immediate action with a view to settlement on land of waiting qualified applicants the coming spring.

The scheme of loans to soldier settlers on homestead lands, or on lands secured by them has been taken advantage of in upwards of one thousand cases, and a sum of a million and a quarter has been absorbed in these loans.

At present the price of land for soldier settlement is a matter of mutual agreement, but it is possible that legislation will be provided so that expropriation proceedings may be taken in case an agreement cannot be reached. The loan of $5,000 would provide for a price of $31 an acre on a quarter section, but it is not likely that much land will be purchased at that price.

The Mayor's Slight Inaccuracy

It was stated by Mayor Clarke at a meeting of the police commission on Thursday in connection with the reported burglary of bonds from the Edmonton Printing Company's safe on the night of Thursday, the sixth, that the police had not notified the banks and bond dealers of the robbery of the bonds until the following week, thereby charging neglect of duty. The Bulletin has made inquiry from the police officials in the matter and is informed that the banks and bond dealers were notified by the police by phone on the afternoon of Friday, the seventh. The robbery had been discovered during the forenoon of Friday. On Sunday a notification was mailed to banks and bond dealers generally at other points.

WINNIPEG PAIR WIN THE SKATING TITLE AT BANFF

BANFF, Alta., Feb. 15.—The open air skating championship at the winter carnival was won by Mrs. J. M. Taylor and George Patterson of Winnipeg here today. Miss Mary McHugh and her brother Harold were awarded the second prize. The competition in the premier event was keenly contested and while the exhibition of Mrs Taylor and her partner was most spectacular, it took the keen eye of an experienced judge to determine the superiority over the graceful showing made by Miss McHugh and her brother.

PREMIER URGES ALL CLASSES TO PRACTICE THRIFT

Formally Commends to People of Province War Saving Stamp System

The following official letter from Hon. Chas. Stewart, premier of Alberta, is addressed to John Blue, honorary secretary the Edmonton War Saving committee:—

"Edmonton, Feb. 14, 1919.

"Dear Sir,—One of the greatest lessons taught by the war to all classes of people should be the great necessity of thrift. In the West, where the war marked the close of our so-called boom times and the period of re-adjustment brought hardship to many classes of people, the necessity of thrift should be thoroughly imbedded in the minds of our people.

"The War Saving Stamp system is a method which to my mind should promote that object to a very large degree. To inculcate the habit of investing spare change instead of spending it uselessly, is to aid greatly in promoting thrift and also to aid conservation of the national wealth.

"These two things are very desirable, especially in this time of reconstruction and I heartily commend it to the people of this province.

"Yours very truly,
"(Sgd.) CHAS. STEWART."

PRAYERS OFFERED FOR PEACE CONFERENCE

Sunday was observed as a day of intercession and prayer on behalf of the work of the Peace Conference in accordance with the request of the lieutenant governor, by most of the city churches. The pastors preached sermons dealing with this subject and referred particularly to the matter in their prayers.

At All Saints the Boy Scout troop attended in a body at the morning service, and the rector, Rev. E. Pierce-Goulding, delivered an earnest appeal to men to recognize that it was only by the strength of prayer and by a recognition of the power of God working in the deliberations of the Peace Conference that it could accomplish anything.

Similar thoughts were expressed by the ministers of the other churches in their addresses.

OFFICERS CHOSEN FOR CITY BRANCH SOCIAL SERVICE

At the meeting of the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Social Service League on Thursday evening, officers for the year were elected as follows:

President, Rev. F. S. McCall.
First vice-president H. H. Hull.
Second vice-president, Rev. T. T. Reikie.
Third vice-president, Mrs. Clyde Macdonald.
Secretary, H. P. Brown.
Treasurer, W. E. Nobles.
Executive, Rev. W. K. Thomson, A. L. Marks, H. E. R. Rogers, Rev. Canon McKim, Mrs. T. Taylor, Mrs. Nellie McClung, Mrs. C. Ferrier, Miss Chatham, Mrs. Roy Cook, Mrs. Bell (president Housewives' league), H. G. Willis, J. W. Findlay, Rev. G. H. Cobbledick, Rev. F. E. Mercer, Dr. J. M. Millar, Rev. A. S. Tuttle, Brig. Hay, A. G. McKittrick, P. W. Robertson, Rev. Mr. Clark.

Arrangements were made for the new executive to be called together immediately to lay down a policy and plan of action, and to redraft the constitution.

The president, Rev. S. F. McCall in his annual report reviewed the work of the year, the recent conference with the police commission, and said as a joke was being made of the liquor act and this legislation which was intended to be prohibitive, had become a by-word, it would be necessary to more than ever combat the forces which are seeking to re-establish the liquor traffic in Alberta.

H. P. Brown, the secretary, in his report dealt largely with change which should be made in the constitution so that the branch might become a more efficient fighting force by means of greater representation from other bodies having like objects.

Over Three Quarters of Million Dollars Will be Required From City to Carry Public Schools

Annual Estimates Are Passed Along to City Comptroller by Board of Trustees—Salaries Total $484,085.50—Forty-Ninth Reception Will Be Helped Along by the School Committee.

According to the annual estimate endorsed at a meeting of the board at mid-day Saturday the demand upon the civic treasury for the public school expenditure during 1919 will be in the vicinity of $757,000. Last year the expenditure of the public school board from funds of the general treasury amounted to $715,000.

The increases in operation of the schools this year, however, approximates $88,050.00 over last year. This apparent discrepancy in the amount asked for by the school board last year and in the present estimate accounted for by an expected larger grant from the provincial government which last year was only $28,004.32. While the board has no definite assurance as to the amount of the government grant this year it is understood that it will be considerably higher and for the purpose of concluding the estimates the probable grant is fixed at $60,000. Naturally if the government cannot give this amount there would have to be a revision of the demand made upon the city's general account.

The board finally disposed of the salaries question at this meeting the last department to be dealt with being that of the medical nursing staff. Two recent appointees to this staff were given a two-years standing with a prewar schedule of salaries to all. The head nurse is given a three years' standing and a bonus of $25 a year.

Truancy Officer's Work

Trustee Wm. Rea expressed the feeling that the board had gone somewhat too far in the granting of salary increases in view of the city's financial position. At the same time he called attention to one employe who had not shared in the advances, this being the truancy officers. In all fairness this should not have been overlooked, and he suggested a bonus of $100 for the year to this official, a motion to this effect being endorsed.

The total salaries for the year are estimated at $484,085.50, compared with $399,129.83 in 1918.

The board considered a letter from Mayor Clarke respecting the reception to the 49th Battalion and it was agreed that a special committee should work with the other civic organizations in making this welcome one of the most memorable in the city's history.

Salaries Estimates

Salaries in the high schools estimated at $83,133. Expenditures in 1918 were $65,914.17.

Salaries in public schools estimated at $302,714.50. Expenditure 1918, $249,356.83.

Technical school, $25,745. Expenditures 1918, $25,047.98.

Building department, $2,675. Expenditure 1918, $2,408.14.

Attendance department, $1,500. Expenditure 1918, $1,550.

Redemption, interest, sinking fund and debenture discount estimated at $252,214.53.

School supplies estimated at $20,750. Building supplies $47,000.

Sundries estimated $6,456.

City levy, $757,000; compared with $715,000 in 1918.

REPORT SAYS SHELL OIL DEAL GOING THROUGH

Opposition to Grab in Dominion Cabinet Is Said to Have Been Overcome

Latest information from Ottawa regarding the Shell Oil company deal is to the effect that the oppositon within the cabinet which held up the deal for a time has been overcome and that the special Canadian agent who has been negotiating the deal landed in England Friday with full assurance of the approval of the government at Ottawa to the arrangement as agreed upon and substantially as already announced to the public.

Whether the Shell Oil company that gets the concession is the real Shell Oil company or a dummy company of Canadian promoters who have borrowed the name is not known definitely. But there is no doubt that the original Shell company is interested directly or indirectly. The Shell company is said to be under the control of the syndicate of German Jews whose influence on British finance and politics has been particularly in evidence under the present coalition government of Britain. A number of them bear British titles. Collectively they are spoken of in connection with British politics as "The Hidden Hand." To their malevolent activities has been attributed many of the unaccountable occurrences in high finance and empire politics of recent years. A conjunction of forces between the Canadian Sifton-Beaverbrook syndicate and the real Shell Oil company of Britain to gobble up Canadian natural resources would not be likely to leave much for the ordinary Canadian citizen.

Local Council of Women Is Addressed By the Mayor

About two hundred women attended the meeting at the Allen Theatre Sunday afternoon held under the auspices of the Local Council of Women.

After the singing of "Lead Kindly Light" and a silent prayer, Mrs. K. Forbes Reid, president of the Council, introduced Mayor Clarke, the speaker of the afternoon.

The mayor, in his prefatory remarks, explained that in an interview with some members of the executive of the Local Council on some matters on which there was considerable divergence in their points of view, had requested them to give him an opportunity of explaining his convictions to the women of Edmonton and thanked them for having acceded to his request.

After many personal reminiscences his worship said he belived women should not attempt to deprive other men by law of indulgence in stimulants they were willing to allow their husbands and friends in the privacy of their homes. He also thought that women were responsible for the double standard by which the sexes were judged since women were more severe on offenders against morality in their own sex than men were, who could better judge of the temptations by which they were surrounded. He thought men might properly be judged by women magistrates and women by men, as more mercy would be shown in each case.

He placed himself unqualifiedly on record as opposed to the present prohibition law and thought that beer and light wines should be sold under conditions which he enumerated. He believed that pure liquors should be obtained under less arduous conditions than those existing at present, stating that he and many other people had never taken as much whiskey in their lives as during the flu epidemic.

One questioner wanted to 'know' where the mayor got his Scotch, which created a ripple of amusement. Several written and oral questions were put which indicated that the view points to which the mayor alluded were still widely divergent.

A lecture by the Marquis of Queensbury at the First Presbyterian church this evening on "Problems of Empire" was announced.

After a vote of thanks to the mayor for his address and to Mr. Allen for the use of the theatre were put the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Mrs. K. Forbes Reid told The Bulletin that it was possible the executive of the Local Council would consider the feasibility of holding other meetings under the auspices of the council to consider civic questions.

Edmonton Orchestra Pleases Immense Audience at Pantages in Aid of Salvation Army Red Shield Campaign Fund

One of the finest performances ever given by the Edmonton orchestra was that of Sunday night in the Pantages theatre in aid of the Salvation Army Red Shield Campaign Fund. The eighty-fourth program was very nicely constructed, containing decideedly interesting numbers beautifully rendered. The interpretation, expression and intonation was of an exceptional degree of excellence. The Pantages was packed and the collection amounted to $175. C. N. Chubb, bass, was the soloist of the evening, and, accompanied by Mr. Barford, made a deep impression upon his hearers, a great many of whom had not heard him before. 'Asleep in the Deep," "The Bandolero," and its encore, "The Bell in the Lighthouse Tower," with orchestra accompaniment, drew a storm of applause for the artist. The orchestra members were all on their metal and responded to the conductor's baton very nicely. Every number was delightful. The selection "Carmen" (Bizet), was the only item on the program which might have been improved, being a bit uncertain and cloudy, but only in two or three places. The Burmese suite, "Pagoda of Flowers," was an exquisite number and vied with the suite "The Three Dances of Henry VIII (German), for first place among the favorites.

Most creditably performed was the difficult "Fingal's Cave," which is always a delight for any musician to find on an orchestra program. The cornet, bassoon, trombone, flute, clarionett and other instruments having solo parts in the various selections did admirably. The violin selection would do credit to any symphony orchestra, so delicious was the tone produced and so capably was the score handled. Precise and neat were the attacks and the effects deftly treated all through. The program was as follows:

Chant Nationale—"O Canada."
Lavalee
March—"The Doge's."
Fred Rosse
(From incidental music to "The Mercant of Venice.")
Overture—"Fingal's Cave."
Mendelsoohn.
Song—"Asleep in the Deep."
Petrie.
Burmese Suite—"Pagoda of Flowers."

Mason & Risch Pianos
"FROM FACTORY TO HOME"

Twice as many people came to us last year than in any previous year to have their pianos tuned.

That means that good work well done advertises itself—that our hundreds of regular customers have told their friends of the highly satisfactory results they obtained here, until our tunings have just doubled. Our service is decidedly superior; our prices—right.

SALVATION ARMY HOSTELS

Buildings rented and equipped exclusively for soldiers. Centres of Good Cheer for the man who returns—not to the arms of loved ones waiting with fluttering heart; not to the care and felicity of a blissful home life; but to cold lodgings. The army's love for the forlorn and loveless prompts these homes for these men. Eleven are in operation, already full, and more are needed in all centres. The Red Shield Campaign now on, is to establish one in all large cities at once. All are asked to do their bit. The boys say "Don't fail the Army—they never failed us."

Among all the eulogies which Salvation Army war service has received, there is none that is more thought of by them than the splendid tributes which have been received in scores of thousands from our own Canadian soldiers. The man who stepped into the open-air meeting by the Alberta hotel and told the bystanders, "The Army treated me 'white' in France, and I'm going to treat them 'white' here," and backed up his testimony with a five-dollar bill to the lassie, is only one of many who have expressed themselves in almost identical fashion. Adjutant Johnston, of the local corps, coming down-town in his Ford a few days ago, hailed a returned soldier going the same way—a perfect stranger. The adjutant asked him if he wanted a lift down-town. In conversation the soldier remarked: "Before I went overseas I had no use for the Salvation Army, and cursed it for all that was useless, but I don't feel like that now. I would be glad to lay down and let any good Salvationist walk over me." Rough!—yes, but it means something has happened, and something big to make such a revolution in that man's regard for the Army.

Nothing Against the Army

Secretary F. W. Law, of the Great War Veterans, Winnipeg, says: "On behalf of the G.W.V.A., I wish you, the Salvation Army, our best and heartiest greetings in your great work. I have not heard a member of the G.W.V.A.—5400 strong—say any word against or in opposition to the Salvation Army. They have said things about other organizations, but never one word against the S.A. I am sure this is a great test, when you know that returned soldiers have a habit of speaking their own minds. They are not afraid to say what they mean.

"The Salvation Army were first in the field when war broke out," says Private Peat in his famous lecture. "They have labored faithfully without outside help and without outside recognition, although we boys know well the happiness and comfort brought to us on these many occasion."

To give some idea of the extent to which the people depend on the Salvation Army, we quote the following letter which was received from the matron of an Eastern Salvation Army children's institution from a father in France. It speaks for itself:

"To the Salvation Army Infants' Hospital and Nursery:

"You have my two little children, Sydney and Jeanette, in your care. I have just been wounded in battle and am in a base hospital. For God's sake, take care of my precious children. If you will do this, I will go back into the firing line as quickly as I recover and fight it out with the enemies of Freedom. Give my dearest love to my little kiddies and remember me to friends.

(Sgd.) "JOSEPH MUSHKIN."

Of course, the children will be cared for, but it will cost something. The public, undoubtedly, will come to the support of the Army in caring for such needs. In fact, the indications are not only that the usual cheerful support that Edmonton is accustomed to give to really worthy campaigns will be given, but that the fund will go "over the top" with a bound.

That the army has brilliantly come through the test of war need no further proof that that one of the first donations which have already been brought into the Red Shield Campaign Headquarters at the corner of 102nd and Jasper was the gift of a returned man. This was his word: "They did more for me 'over there' than anyone else." He gave $5.00. The word "spontaneity" is the motto of this campaign. Have you got in on this yet?

COAL PRODUCTION IN ALBERTA GROWS AT RAPID RATE

Alberta's percentage of the production of coal in all Canada, is rapidly increasing. During the year 1918 Alberta produced approximately 40 per cent. of all the coal mined in Canada, while in 1911 she produced only 14 per cent. of the total output of the Dominion.

Another comparison that is gratifying is that in 1918 B.C. produced 2,600,000 and Alberta 6,100,000, while seven years ago B.C. was mining considerably more than Alberta. The B.C. output has remained fairly stationary and the Alberta output has gone up. In 1911 Alberta mined about 1,700,000, and B.C. 2,200,000.

District Court

Judge Crawford at Fort Saskatchewan on Thursday sentenced Fred Fleck to three years' imprisonment at the Edmonton penitentiary, having found him guilty of a serious crime against his daughter. The accused is 50 years of age and previously resided with his wife and family on his farm near Vegreville, where he was arrested on the charge by Constable Nicholson, of the Alberta Provincial police.

James Wannacott was sentenced to eleven months' imprisonment at Fort Saskatchewan, being found guilty of the charge of contributing to the delinquency of his children while he lived apart from his wife and with another.

FORMS AVAILABLE FOR APPLICATIONS TO GET REFUNDS

Capt. G. D. Edwards, district paymaster M.D. 13, has now received a limited supply of the necessary application forms for a refund or transportation expenses paid by Soldiers' dependents who sailed from the United Kingdom or Europe on or after November 11, 1918. These application forms may be obtained by sending written application to, or calling on the District Paymaster, M.D. 13 the Armories, Calgary. While the assistance will be granted to all soldiers' dependents who are coming to Canada under demobilization, it is retroactive to include those who sailed from the United Kingdom on or after November 11, 1918. There is no provision for dependents who sailed from the United Kingdom or Europe before that date.

The new order-in-council was passed at Government House, Ottawa, on January 29, 1919, and is very clear to even the lay mind. The term soldiers' dependents is held to include the wives and children under 18 years of age; soldiers' dependents never previously resident in Canada are granted the same consideration as those who have been previously in Canada.

The assistance granted by the government shall consist of third class accommodation on ship, with corresponding rail transportation from address in the United Kingdom or Europe to port of embarkation to destination in Canada. Dependents may, if they desire and if space is available, secure accommodation of a better class on ship or on shore by paying the difference between the class allowed by the government and the class by which they desire to travel. Dependents are expected to provide themselves with funds to purchase food and pay other incidental expenses en route to homes in Canada.

CASE IS DISMISSED WITHOUT HEARING DEFENCE'S EVIDENCE

Mr. Justice Hyndman in the Supreme Criminal court Saturday morning acquitted Harry Smith of Metiskow of the charge of theft of a red yearling heifer, claimed to be the property of Roy Kolb of the same place.

At the conclusion of the crown's case, His Lordship decided that there had not been sufficient evidence adduced to prove the ownership of the heifer, and on the application of J. A McCaffrey and A. H. Bernard, counsel for the defence, dismissed the case and discharged the prisoner without hearing the evidence for the defence.

The heifer was valued at $60, and there is likely to be civil action for her recovery.

News of the District

HIGHBRIDGE

Bulletin News Service.

At the meeting of the school board, Mr. P. S. Rand was appointed secretary treasurer at $50 per year. Mr. Burton Blades was chairman of the meeting. It was decided to start the school on March 15 and to engage a lady teacher. A vote of thanks was proposed to the retiring secretary by the chairman.

Mrs. Roberta McPhee was elected trustee and chairman of the Manola board, and Mr. Epperley secretary-treasurer.

Mr. E. Rand has returned from Montana.

Considerable interest has been awakened in the coming municipal election. The people seem to want a change as the overhead expenses seems to be too heavy. The bridges will have to be fixed and a road has been promised to Picardville, but as it is not one of the trunk lines the government work does not reach it and the cash tax system also fails to help.

The Ladies' Social Circle met at the home of the president last week.

W. Insley's new threshing outfit has arrived, a complete Sawyer-Massey tractor and separator, fit and fine.

IN MEMORIUM

In ever loving memory of our dear friend J. F. Hunter, who died February 16, 1918.

INSERTED BY HIS FRIENDS

Oh, moon, shine on over that grave
And touch that cross with peace,
And let him quietly sleep on
Whose soul hath found release.
For memory has painted a perfect day
With colors that never fade,
And we found at the end of a perfect day
The soul of A Friend we've made.

A League to Suppress Nations

The League of Nations scheme, as disclosed in the proposed constitution, is an elaborate attempt to establish the milleneum in an unregenerate world.

This milleneum, however, is not to be one of volition, but one of dictation. Peace is to be established, not because the peoples of the world in the enjoyment of recognized justice and liberty determine to live at peace, but because a powerful group of nations set their seals to a document dedeclaring that there shall not be under any circumstances a resort to force. The authority it is proposed to give the executive council and congress of delegates represents a power as complete and as far-reaching in military matters as the Kaiser aspired to establish over the nations of the world. It is laid down as a condition of the League that each nation must forego its freedom to establish and maintain such military and naval forces as seem to it necessary to the protection of its rights and legitimate promotion of its interests and must accept such definition of these rights and such protection of these interests as the League of Nations may see fit to give. There is also in the proposed constitution latitude allowed for the extension to an unspecified extent of the authority of the League over national affairs other than those of military and naval defence. In fact, just how much liberty the individual nation will have left under this proposed League dictatorship is a matter that cannot be decided until the terms of the constitution have been worked out in detail and announced in the full and complete regulations by which the will of the League is to be imposed upon the world.

Peace is the ideal of the world. But the prevention of hostilities is an essentially different matter than the establishment of peace. Peace only exists in the recognition of justice and liberty. Horrible as the fact is, it is none the less a fact that there is a possibility even worse than the possibility of another world war—that is, the possible creation of a condition in which there ought to be, but would not be, war. A condition under which injustice towards a single nation would be backed by such overwhelming force that effective resistance would be manifestly impossible.

China is an example of a nation that long ago fell into the delusion that the blessings of peace are to be attained by keeping out of war under any and all circumstances—and China is the result. The Empire of China, containing one-third the population of this world and natural resources beyond computation, has a civilization that was old before the western civilization began. It was a high civilization, and it is essentially a civilization whose object is to preserve peace at any price; and today China is a by-word among the nations in all that relates to progress, development and enlightenment. From the standpoint of China what is needed , and has been needed for the last thousand years, is a war that would wake up the people of that Empire to national consciousness and to a realization that stagnation is not a state of bliss.

Struggle is the law of human life. That law is older than man. Man cannot change it. He can ignore it, but only by paying the penalty. Just as national progress and development are the result of the individual enterprise of the citizens of the country, so the civilization of the world is advanced by the struggle between nations to attain superiority. There is no standing still in the life of the individual or of the nation; and just as the discouragement and relaxation of individual enterprise spells reaction in the nation, so the suspension of struggle between nations for the post of leadership and the position of prestige in the world must spell reaction in civilization. The nation has been the agent by which civilization was built up and safe-guarded. That agent cannot be suppressed without inviting stagnation and decay.

A Cash Embargo.

The various embargoes on trade, traffic and information between Britain and Canada, imposed by the Coalition Government of Britain, seem to be almost as numerous and quite as unreasonable as the avalanche of regulation under order-in-council authority, issued by the Union Government in Canada.

On Friday last there came to the attention of The Bulletin the fact that there is an embargo on the transfer of private money from Britain to Canada. A visitor to Edmonton from Great Britain—a member of a well-known Scottish family—had occasion to cable on Wednesday last to his solicitor in England for a sum of money. On Friday he was informed that instead of the money the telegraph company had received the following enquiry, dated Liverpool, February 13th:

> "Yours 12th, Phoenix. Amount of money and purpose required. Will it entail money being sent from United Kingdom?"

It will be observed that the cable had been stopped at Liverpool on its way to London, pending receipt of the very intimate information demanded, and the decision, presumably of the British Government authorities, thereon.

Canadians had been led to believe that the attitude of the British Government—as of the British people—was of the "favored nation" character. It appears, however, that not only are Canadian food products on the prohibited list for entry into the United Kingdom, but the outgo of private funds to Canada is subject to vexatious regulations in all cases and, to prohibition in some.

Sir Robert for Washington?

The London Express publishes a report that Sir Robert Borden to be made British ambassador at Washington. The report will interest Canadian readers rather because it indicates the particular destination of our present Premier than because it suggests the probability of his translation to another sphere of activity.There has been a wide impression in Canada for a long time that Sir Robert was likely to step out of Canadian politics, probably into a seat in the British House of Lords.

Should this report be well founded it will stimulate opinion in this country to the effect that Canada should have its own representative at the United States capital. Sir Robert may be a fitting representative of the British Government at Washington, but the chief exponent of "No truck or trade with the Yankees" would hardly be the ideal agent through which the business of Canada with the United States should be transacted.

Should the Police Force Be In Civic Politics?

The city council is to be asked today to recommend to the legislature a change in the city charter that will give the mayor a measure of control over police affairs that he does not now enjoy. What the majority of the people want is police efficiency and a square deal. The recent turmoil in regard to police efficiency proved beyond argument that we have both efficiency and square dealing—up to the limit that can reasonably be expected for the amount of money that the city feels able to pay for police protection. A larger and more highly paid police force could, no doubt, give a greater measure of efficiency. But it is a question if the increase of efficiency would be worth the cash it would cost.

The present method of police control was adopted for good and sufficient reasons, that arose when the present mayor was a member of the city council, and largely while he was chairman of the council committee that dealt with police matters. It seems strangely inopportune, from the point of view of law observance, that the method of control adopted in 1915 should now be changed back to that which prevailed in 1914—or to as close an approximation to it as the present mayor can achieve.

Another Suggestion.

More than one road leads to Rome. Having failed in the attempt to get the Public Utilities Commission to over-ride the contractual power of the city and raise the rates in disregard of the terms of its agreement, the Gas company now proposes that it should carry out its undertaking on condition that the city pays part of the cost of the pipe.

Meantime the eastern shareholders in the company have wired the city that the officials on the ground are not representing their views and interests and that a special representative is being sent to discuss matters with the city council. Whether the eastern shareholders think the local representatives of the company have not been trying hard enough to put over a favorable revision of the agreement, or whether they are prepared to repudiate the efforts of the local officials and go ahead with their enterprise, remains to be seen.

As all the other alternatives seem to have been canvassed it may not be untimely to suggest that the company should be invited to pay the extra cost of its pipe line out of the profits it intends to make on watered stock. For some reason the question does not appear to have been raised as to whether the stock issue of this company represents only actual cash invested, or whether large blocks were handed out as a means of securing the franchise, or for other purposes. That is a matter upon which in fairness to the people of the city the council should demand information before considering any sort of concession asked for.

Protecting the Farmer.

In 1913 the Edmonton farmer paid $160 for a McCormick 8-foot binder. Now he pays $250 for the same binder.

In 1914 a Cockshutt 14-inch two furrow plow cost $80 to $85. Today it costs $160.

Binder twine cost 11c to 13c per pound in 1913. Last season it cost 25c a pound.

Last fall live hogs were worth 20c a pound. Now they are worth 16c a pound.

Last fall feed oats were 80c a bushel. Now they are 39c a bushel.

The government prevented the farmer from selling his oats outside the province last fall. Now he must take half last fall's price for them.

Wheat has a fixed price for last year's crop. But the only buyer is the Allied purchasing commission When they don't buy the farmer doesn't sell or must take any price below the fixed price that he can get. Next year's United States wheat crop has a fixed price. The Canadian farmer must sell his next year's crop on the open market for whatever he can get.

Sir Robert Demands Silence.

Mr. John W. Defoe, editor of the Winnipeg "Free Press," who was taken to Europe for the purpose of keeping the Canadian people informed as to the interpretation Sir Robert Borden wished placed upon the trend of events there, have provided the Canadian press with a lengthy dispatch setting out the history and prospects of the Peace Conference.

In the course of an article which consists mostly of "sound and fury signifying nothing," occurs the following paragraph, which no doubt contains the esence of what Sir Robert desires to be conveyed to Canada. During an interruption in the Conference proceedings, it is said "Various national "parliaments will be sitting, but "it is understood it is the feeling "of the conference that limited "discussion in the parliaments of "national hopes and aspirations "might have a very detrimental "effect upon the later deliberations of the Conference, by putting serious difficulties in the "way of compromises which will "be necessary. It is stated that "statements to their parliaments "by the various Prime Ministers "will be guarded and of a general "character."

Which, in plain English, is an official announcement from Sir Robert Borden, through his special publicity man, to the members of the Canadian parliament and to the Canadian people that parliament is not to be permitted at the coming session to discuss the transactions at the Peace Conference, nor to express ideas prevailing in Canada as to principles upon which the conference should proceed and conditions which should be imposed, in the interests of justice and peace, upon the enemy.

Discipline.

Naval discipline is a wonderful thing. Two brothers, whose home is in the east New York section, met at the home table the other day. The elder, Archie, is a junior lieutenant, and Bill, the younger, is a plain seaman, "second class." Bill stood at attention.

"Sit down, Bill," said Archie.

"No, sir, thank you, sir," replied Bill, saluting.

Archie sat down and continued: "Now sit down, Bill."

"Thank you, sir; yet sir," said Bill And two disgusted parents looked to see if their kids were really serious. Not a smile was visible.

THE PENALTIES IN LITIGATION.

Editor The Bulletin:

Sir,—Allow me a word to say that my friend, Mr. Smith, in referring to my contribution on the penalties imposed on losing parties in litigation misinterprets to the public (unintentionally, of course) the sense of my article It did not relate to the question of the amount of the costs of litigation, large or small, but to the question of who should pay them, maintaining, as I repeat, that only in case of unjustifiable action on the part of a litigant and undivided opinion on the part of the courts should the losing party pay the penalty of the other party's expenses as well as his own. Lawyers in Canada with very few exceptions do not, as he says, encourage litigation for the sake of the fees, but on the contrary continually discourage it, subject to their clients rights, whatever they may do in Chicago, where Mr. Smith practiced. There would be no outcry as to the costs of litigation if every man paid only for the services rendered him, and if, perhaps, the state wholly paid the salaries of the ministerial as well as the judicial officers of the court.

As to his suggestion that legislation be enacted providing that disputes be first submitted to a disinterested person, for settlement, where there are more disinterested persons than the judges and men better qualified to determine what is just and fair, and the only practical change in the system intended to effect early settlements made under compulsory enactment might be some method, not wholly new, by which a judge could be brought into it at an early stage of the dispute, and by some simple and summary process, and thus often arrest litigation in its incipient stage. This might be an improvement, but a compulsory reference to an unofficial person would be useless and I think absurd. I see little flagrantly wrong except the penalties imposed on honest men for using the courts which the country has provided to settle bona fide disputes.

Pardon this intrusion. I shall not recur to the subject.

ALEX. STUART.

GOLF COURSE EXPANSION

Editor The Bulletin:

Sir—It is a strange thing that the good game of golf will so upset the smooth working of a man's mind that he loses sight of obvious and stated facts. At the hearing re taking Victoria Park over for golf links to the exclusion of other games and public pleasure purposes, it was stated that this taking over would not interfere with the use of the park by others than the golf players. I pointed out that men who play golf don't care to have anybody near them except the other players of the same game, and are fairly fussy about the conduct of even their fellow players. I gave an instance wherein two youngsters chanced to be crossing the links when one of these supersensitive players was about to tee off and told how extremely unwelcome these wayfarers were at this critical moment when the fate of the world apparently hung upon the success or failure of a fat man's effort to hit a small ball so that it would go far and fast in a desired direction.

And this The Bulletin reporter says had no connection with the fact that the other public must cross the golf links to some extent, at least, to reach that part of Victoria Park left for picnic parties after the golf links swallow up practically three-quarters of the park, including the cricket and baseball grounds. This reporter chances to be a golf player and secretary of the golf club, which accounts, I suppose, for his inability to see that people other than golf players are not only in danger if they intrude upon the links while games are going on, but they are something more than unwelcome to the golf players as well.

The golfing reporter was not the only inconsistant person at the hearing; Mayor Clarke took his full share of inconsistency and that is not small. When the exhibition board—owners of the East End Park, I am told—took a portion of that park for exhibition purposes, Mr. Clarke was heard far, wide and often, as champion of the people's rights to all the park land they had in the East End. That was a crime, an outrage, an altogether vile thing to do, but when the mayor wants to grab a bunch of good golf votes for next year's election, he takes what he thinks is a short-cut to them. If the council approves the 18-hole course, he did it for the golfers. If the council disapproves, he did his best, and if more is wanted, elect a proper council and get it. Clever, perhaps, but a trifle hollow when rapped with solid sense.

It should be made plain, too, that the community leaguers—South Side and 142nd street district—do not protest against giving Victoria Park to the golfers because of any sectional loss or advantage; the community idea is that the general good should be kept always to the fore and that individual or class privileges shall be merged in the welfare of the people at large, as far as it is practicable—or possible—to do that . It seems clear to us that the move to take the greater part of Victoria Park for golf links is in the nature of class legislation and bad for that reason.

Very truly yours,
GEO. M. HALL.

Great Moments

There came great moments to us all,
  When flashes of the truth we see—
As when we dare to stand or fall
  For honor or for liberty;
Or putting earthly fame aside
  And unafraid of scorn or pain,
We choose to suffer and be tried
  To keep our souls without a stain.

Not always is our vision clear,
  Not always can we see aright.
Life has so much confusion here
  That truth is blurred and hid from sight.

But still there come to every man
  Great moments when he understands
The glory of the Master's plan,
  And then it is his soul expands.

He that has stood beside the bier,
  Of one he loved, has seen how vain
Are treasures that men gather here,
  How trivial are loss and gain.

He that has cooled a fevered brow
  And sought the hand of death to stay,
Has learned that all to grief must bow,
  Nor gold nor fame can spare the clay.

There come great moments to us all
  When flashes of the truth we see—
When we discover just how small
Things are which mighty seemed to be.
And in those moments, troubled, tried,
  We rise above all selfish gain
And put the joys of earth aside
  To keep our souls without a stain.

Educating Returned Soldiers

Cabinet Making, Angus Shops.

Making a locomotive side rod bushing.

ABOUT 18 months ago it first became possible for a returned soldier, who had been so disabled by service that it was impossible for him to resume his former civil occupation, to take a course of training under government supervision and pay, which fitted him for some new occupation, the pursuit of which would not be prevented by his disability.In other words, his case was carefully considered, his disability taken into account, and his training arranged so that in his new occupation he could develop 100% efficiency. As an example take a machinist who had lost a leg; obviously his disability was such that he could not resume that occupation. He had a knowledge of blue prints and drawing and some latent ability in a drawing line. He was passed for a course as a mechanical draughtsman. At the termination of his course he was employed at a wage nearly equal to his wage as a machinist. The loss of a leg was no handicap as his new occupation did not call for any moving around. Thus this man seriously handicapped as a machinist, was enabled to overcome his handicap and compete successfully with any other draughtsman.

Owing to the increasing number of different trades and occupations in which it was necessary to train such men it became imperative that training places should be found. Obviously if a man was to be trained for a position in a machine shop, the place to train him was right in the particular machine shop in which he would eventually be employed. This resulted in the institution of industrial surveys. One of the first industries in Montreal to be surveyed was the Angus Shops (Canadian Pacific Railway). It can readily be understood that these shops, employing thousands of skilled men, in practically all kinds of mechanical work, offered great opportunities for the training of disabled men The above mentioned industrial survey consisted of a detailed report on every position in the Angus Shops; it showed among other things the exact nature of the work done and what disabilities would hinder a man from doing the work. This survey was a guide to the District Vocational Officer, as a reference to it showed immediately what mechanical work a disabled man would be physically able to do without being troubled by his disability.

From the outset every official of the C. P. R. who was approached expressed great interest in the work, and by co-operation rendered most material assistance in the re-instating of disabled soldiers in civilian occupations.

The general scheme of training adopted by the Invalided Soldiers' Commission is to give any man taking a machine shop training about three-quarters of his course in the machine shop at McGill University, then place him out with an industry such as the Angus Shops to finish that course and gain the necessary practical experience. During the time that the man is taking this training, he is drawing full pay and allowances from the Invalided Soldiers' Commission so the firm with which he is working is not called on to pay him anything. In this way the man becomes accustomed to his work in a place where he will probably be employed at the termination of his course, and the employer, having had the man under him for some time, knows something about his work. This method generally results in disabled men being absorbed into the industries for which they have been trained with no gap between termination of course and employment and is thus satisfactory to all concerned.

It might appear from the foregoing that the employment offered by the C .P .R. to men being trained by the Invalided Soldiers' Commission is confined to positions in the Angus Shops. Such however is not the case. Every department has taken on men, clerks, draughtsmen, telegraphers.

In some industries there has been a tendency to fight shy of the returned men, the reason stated being his inability and apparent lack of power of concentration on his work Not so with the C. P. R. Every consideration is shown the returned man and every possible allowance is made which will assist him in re-establishing himself in civil life. The attitude taken by the higher officials of the C. P. R. in regard to disabled soldier students is mirrored in the following letter of instructions issued to foremen:—

THE RETURNED SOLDIER AS AN EMPLOYEE.

How do you treat a returned soldier working under you? Do you consider him as an ordinary workman, let him shift for himself and look on his mistakes only as you would an ordinary employee? If so, you are assuming that he is in all respects just a normal man and should be able to do the same work as quickly and as well as the average employee. If you do, you are wrong.

Many returned soldiers' constitutions are broken down. They have been gassed, shell shocked and tortured by wounds, and consequently are highly strung and nervous and will be for some time to come. What they make of themselves depends on you. If one of these men make a mistake and is roughly reprimanded, he is likely to shake like a leaf, get excited, etc., and be very difficult to make anything of; this is wrong. The greatest tact, care and attention that you can give these men in helping them to become useful employees is what the Company expects, and, moreover, you owe it to them.

There are bound to be some exceptions and some men will fail to make good. The success or failure of the majority, however, depends on you, and it is your privilege to help your country in this national crisis by endeavoring to make useful citizens out of the nerve-shattered men that are commencing to come back to us from the front.

Is further proof of the interest of the C. P. R. necessary? No!

Now for results. Of the first hundred men to complete Industrial Reeducational Courses in this unit, ten were employed by the C, P. R. on the termination of their courses. Up to date, about two hundred men have completed courses and now many of these men are employed by the C. P. R., i. e.: These men have taken courses in no less than 12 different trades, so it is obvious that the C. P, R. is assisting splendidly.

Current Comment

AS THE FARMER SEES IT.

By F. C. Pickwell in Toronto Saturday Night.

From a western point of view, the manufacturers appear to be playing an inexplicable ostrich-like game of burying their heads in the sand, and have apparently adopted a propaganda of attempting to discredit the agricultural organizations.

On the other hand, propaganda experts for the manufacturers do not appear to be holding their own very well in the matter of educating public opinion. Much time has been spent dealing with the freight rates and other burdens carried by the western , in a pretense of appealing to the farmers and consumers, but little impressive headway is made when it comes to discussing the tariff, and its effect on the western provinces. Noted missionaries have come out of the east to spread the gospel of "a tariff for revenue only," and what it all means as a sound national policy of long standing; but it is that which is left unsaid which makes the real impression on the carefully guided agricultural mind—and in many cases the consumers, too, who are caught from both sides.

For instance, the farmers bluntly ask why it is possible for a Winnipeg implement firm to place an order of $160,000 for farm machinery in the United States, all made in Ontario, pay the market price, plus duty and freight, and land the material at its destination on the prairies for less than the price asked by the western agents of these same Eastern Canadian manufacturers. The reason why, is hard to answer intelligently, but the above is by no means an isolated case, and makes ideal material for agricultural propagandists—and difficult to combat by their opponents.

Supporters of high protection are also referred to such an instance as the 35 per cent. duty on farm lighting plants with an additional five per cent. levy for territorial restrictions to agents. One western writer has pointed out that a certain type of farm lighting plant sells in Calgary for $685. Last year one firm sold over 2,000 of these plants in Alberta and Saskatchewan, and paid $370,000 duty into the Calgary customs office. Plants of this type are not made in Canada.

After the price of wheat had been set by the government, to prevent speculating and raising the price unreasonably by the grain growers, a war tax of 7 1-2 per cent. was placed on agricultural implements and other goods. The farmers point to the fact, as they claim, that not one single Canadian manufacturer had sufficient patriotism to continue selling his goods to the consumer in this country at the same price they had secured prior to the placing of the war tax—but increased the price 7 1-2 per cent.

And so all along the line the western farmers are asking questions and demanding explanations. The propaganda for them is being placed before the public much faster and in a more convincing way than that in rebuttal by the combined efforts of both eastern and western manufacturing publicity experts.

"STRAINED INTERPRETATION"

Winnipeg Telegram:

In a dispatch from Ottawa last week, the Telegram's correspondent at that point gave the government's explanation of how it is that certain importing firms in Canada were able to bring in high-priced tractors free, while other firms importing tractors of equal or even less value, were forced to pay duty.

In effect the government's explanation of the discrimination is that the order-in-council is so worded as to allow of great latitude in its interpretation. As a consequence of this vagueness, therefore, the government admitted, it was possible that "under a strained interpretation of the order" tractors with a market value of more than $1,400 might have come in.

It will be noted that the explanation does not give any excuse or reason for having denied the privilege of the "strained interpretation" to certain firms, while certain other firms were given the benefit of it and allowed to bring their high-priced tractors in free. It does not state why, when the application of these less favored firms were presented, in exactly the same way, by the same agent, with identical arguments, these firms were refused that permission which had already been given to two firms more favored.

In other words, the government's explanation merely explains that some influence as yet undisclosed has compelled the department of customs to place a strained interpretation upon the order-in-council for the benefit of two importing firms, while denying that interpretation of it to other firms—with the result that these other firms are discriminated against by government action to the extent of at least $407,000 in customs duty, and that the Dominion of Canada has lost at least that much revenue which should at this moment be in the possession of the country.

STRIKES AND RIOTS.

Prof. W. H. Alexander in Weekly News Letter of Alberta University.

In Great Britain strikes of large dimensions and marked by considerable violence have broken out at Belfast and Glasgow. These strikes have been called in defiance of the advice of the labor leaders, and the most remarkable thing about them is the resemblance they bear to disturbances in a number of German cities shortly after the armistice was signed. In Belfast we have the instructive spectacle of a committee of working men deciding which buildings should and which should not have electric light, and of the postmaster sending a humble note of thanks for light accorded him. Who are we to lecture Russians and Germans on the beauty of law, order, and organized government. . . . In Canada we have had lively demonstrations this week on the part of returned soldiers in Winnipeg and, to a less degree, in Calgary, against firms alleged to employ alien labor in their establishments. Violence did not go far and in Winnipeg some startling alterations of the staff were hastily effected.

DOUBTING GERMANY

Winnipeg Free Press:

The failure of the German "Democrats" to make a clean sweep of all the officials connected with the Imperialist regime is, indeed, a strong ground for disbelief in the intention of the German people to maintain republican institutions once it becomes "safe" to swing back again to monarchy. No genuine democracy could tolerate men of the stamp and with the training of Germany anywhere in its service and especially not in its diplomatic service at the very moment when it ought to be actuated by the desire to impress its neighbors with the reality of its conversion from militarism and autocracy to popular government.

THOUGHT IT WAS A BOIL
Doctor Said Abscess

Mr. Gleason R. Young, Kingscroft, N.B., under date of Feb. 9th, 1918, writes us as follows: "About five months ago, a lump came on my jawbone. I thought it was a boil, and after it had been there quite a while it began to get larger. I went to a doctor and he said it was an abscess, and lanced it. He gave me a wash for it, so I went by his directions until it healed up, but it commenced coming again, and in about three weeks it broke itself. I thought it would get better, but it didn't. A neighbor advised me to get a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I sent and got a bottle, and by the time it was all gone the abscess had disappeared, and now it is all better."

Burdock Blood Bitters will heal and dry up sores, ulcers, and abscesses, no matter how large or of how long standing. If you have never applied it to a cut, wound, sore or ulcer, just try it and see what soothing, healing, cleansing power it possesses. It takes out itching, stinging and burning, and promotes the growth of healthy flesh. So, too, when taken internally, by its power of eliminating all impurities from the blood and making that vital fluid rich, red and pure, it cuts off the origin and source of the foul matter that goes to make boils, pimples, sores, ulcers, abscesses and the like, and at the same time the purified and enriched blood creates healthy tissue where there was formerly, perhaps, a sore full of pus.

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

An amusing story was told at the Farmers' union meeting yesterday illustrating the difficulty of identifying cattle after slaughter. A Devonshire farmer sent a cow for slaughter and sale at a distance. After he had received payment for the sale of the "carcase," his daughter one morning said to her mother, "Why, there's Daisy at the gate." Daisy was the name of the cow supposed to have been slaughtered and sold. "Sure enough," said the Devonshire man, who told the story, "there was Daisy alive, and the money for the 'beef' had to be returned."

"TURN TO THE RIGHT" AT EMPIRE TONIGHT

That jolly comedy, "Turn to the Right," will open a three-days' engagement at the Empire Theatre with this evening's performance. Brisk fun, youthful romance and an atmosphere of green fields and scented orchards invest the play, which has a rich appeal to city dwellers. During its long run on Broadway it lured thousands back to view it again and again.

It is confidently recommended as the one play of the generation for the whole family not providing a frown or a blush in its entire action.

The title, "Turn to the Right," is taken from the story of an erring boy's regeneration through the Christian influence of his old-fashioned mother. Joe Bascon is a type common to every small town in America. An honest hearted youth, he leaves his home and sweetheart to win riches in the city. Seven years later he comes back, but stamped with a prison record.

With the homestead doomed to seizure, the story as to how this was avoided and the reformation of Joe and two other pals accomplished is one of the most gripping of its kind.

This powerful play which was presented twice before President Wilson and also before the Duke of Devonshire, will be offered here for three nights and with a matinee on Wednesday.

Scene from "Turn to the Right," which opens a three-day engagement at the Empire Theatre tonight.

SNAPPY BILL AT THE PANTAGES

Laughs galore are provided in "The Million Dollar Dolls," a miniature musical comedy, which is the Pantages headline attraction for all this week. Featured in this act is that star comedian, Dave Seed, with a Ziegfieldian chorus. Mr. Seed is well known for his laugh-producing abilities. The production is offered by B. D. Berg, who has a national reputation.

An up-to-the-minute sensation is given by "The Aeroplane Girls," They perform intricate and sensational feats on trapezes swung from whirling aeroplanes.

A comedy dramatic sketch entitled "Tears" is offered by Miss Marie Deel, assisted by Jack Meehan. The Astor Four offer songs and dances while Jack and Marie Gray have a classy offering in novelty dancing. A whistling novelty number is given by Arthur Barrett. The bill is preceded by the second episode of the serial, "The Lightning Raider," with Pearl White in the main role.

"UNDER COVER" IS STIRRING DRAMA

Theatregoers everywhere admit that "Under Cover," by Roi Cooper Megrue, which had such a wonderful reception in New York when presented by Selwyn and company, is one of the most absorbing stage pieces that has ever been written. It is presented by the Orpheum Players the first three nights of this week, with a Wednesday matinee, to give Edmontonians a play that is a stirring, gripping story of romance and adventure. Its suspense is thrilling, its comedy is delightful, its mystery is tremendous, its surprises are impressive, its characters are lovable, its dialogue sparkles. It is absolutely clean. It is not a crook play, nor of the underworld—and its appeal is universal.

The plot of "Under Cover" carries the story of Steven Denby, smuggler; Ethel Cartwright, customs agent; "R. J., 2," the mysterious figure of the secret service; of the Harringtons, a husband and wife in love with each other; Monty, Denby's frightened friend; Nora, who would rather die than be old-fashioned; of the pearl necklace, of life in the customs and in the fashionable set in Long Island—all woven into an intricate tale of excitement and mystery and surprise, and laughter, that yet is not without a tear.

Coming for the last three days of the week with a Saturday matinee is "Billy," a comedy of teeth that will be found most interesting.

The Orpheum management announces that arrangements are completed for the presentation of Elinor Glynn's "Three Weeks." It will run the first three nights of next week, with a Wednesday matinee. The seat sale is now on.

ALLEN—A novel role, that of the daughter of a prospector, was selected for dainty Enid Bennett in the latest Paramount picture, "Fuss and Feathers," which will be displayed at the Allen theatre today and Tuesday. It is said that Miss Bennett never portrayed a more convincing role than this and that her work therein is all that can be desired. An unusually strong cast was selected to support the star, the players including Douglas MacLean, the leading man, J. P. Lockney, Charles French, Sylvia Ashton and Robert McKim.

Human interest, the thrill of tense scenes, humor and many attractive settings, particularly those representing the mining camp will, it is believed, justify the prediction that this is a distinctive production and one of the most unique in which Miss Bennett has ever appeared.

The story concerns a prospector who strikes it rich and his daughter Susie. They go to San Francisco, where they are snubbed by society, but Susie has her revenge and marries a scion of wealth and aristocracy. There are many strong situations filled with interest and heart appeal.

REGENT—Henry Warner( wounded veteran of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, arrives in New York to seek work, but fails. Hungry and hectored by an exacting landlady he goes out into the streets to steal. When he takes the wallet of a man in a subway entrance he is detected and pursued.

Warner stumbles into the home of Old Man Middleton a crafty individual who forces him to accept the mission of recovering a valuable paper stolen from him by his nephew. Warner sees the nephew, Craig, in the home of Ruth Orton, a pretty girl who has consented to marry Craig because such a union would remove the menace of poverty.

By pretending to be a burglar, Warner persuades the girl to invite him to a party which Craig arranges as a means of announcing his engagement to Ruth. Craig drinks a toast to the bride-to-be and is chagrined when he notices that Warner is the only one present who does not join. Craig asks Warner to explain and there is a fight.

How Warner recovers the stolen paper and restores Ruth to her rightful position as the owner of a large estate after gun play a-plenty, and then goes to the girl, is told in the picture. But he was only a burglar he admitted that, and she was miles above him. Where do you think he went and what did he do?

See "Kiss or Kill," a special photoplay at the Regent today, with dashing Herbert Rawlinson.

Dreamland—Los Angeles is said to contain more beautiful girls than any other city in the world. And, by the same token, it is the graveyard of more dead hopes than any other city in the world.

The centre of this country's moving picture activities, Los Angeles is the Mecca towards which aspirants for screen honors constantly head. Girls, whose foolish hearts have been turned by local praise, journey to the "City of the Angels" only to find that thousands of other girls, all just as anxious to appear in motion pictures, and as pretty, or even prettier, have been compelled to take up less romantic pursuits because of the dearth of screen engagements.

One girl, however, who was more fortunate than the rest, is Mildred Harris, who will today be seen at the Dreamland theatre, when "The Doctor and the woman," the newest Jewel production, is presented. Fate smiled benignly when Miss Harris arrived at Los Angeles, with the result that she obtained a few engagements in the more prominent studios as an "extra."

This Jewel is a screen adaptation of Mary Roberts Rinehart's popular novel "K," and is said to be a companion picture to "The Price of a Good Time." True Boardman appears opposite Mrs. Charlie Chaplin (Mildred Harris).

MONARCH—One of the rarest things in the world—an original idea, is expressed in "Good Bye, Bill!" the second John Emerson-Anita Loos production for Paramount, starring those two sterling artists, Shirley Mason and Ernest Truex, which will be shown at the Monarch Theatre the first three days of this week The photoplay satirizes Wild Bill Hohenzollern from start to finish. It shows how he hung his terrorism idea on the eye of the German people so effectually that he thought sure it would work out on the rest of the world too.

Well, Bill didn't succeed in scaring the rest of the world, as we all know, and he surely didn't scare the authors of this new kind of Kaiser play. They have fun with the Kaiser, the crown prince, and the whole Prussian gang and they do it effectively. As a rule the grimmer the job the American has to do, the more he kids himself about it. Over on the other side our boys have laughed and joked in the face of death, as they fought for the freedom of the world, and this play brings some of their healthy kidding to the folks at home.

The Kaiser hung hardware on the breasts of all his gang. He himself wore so many medals it looked as though he had the medal measles. Swords clanked and the points of the mustaches of the Prussians stuck up toward the stars. It looked to them as though they couldn't lose.

ARENAS EASY PICKINGS FOR CANADIENS

Flying Frenchmen Played with Torontos as a Cat Plays with a Mouse

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—Canadiens played with the Toronto Arenas Saturday at the Jubilee rink as a cat with a mouse and the score at the end of the hour was 8 to 2 for the locals. Whatever chance Toronto had of tying with Ottawa for the second half of the race was killed by the loss. Both clubs started out with the lineups, and for a short time in the first period Toronto's put up an argument but when the Canadiens scored the first goal through the fforts of Petrie, Toronto's faded so that their club looked like a bunch of amateurs.

Lindsay was in goal but had an off night. Two shots went through his legs in such easy fashion that the crowd hooted him. Even his own team mates laughed at him when he allowed a shot to get past him from a face off near his nets. So easy was the Canadiens victory that Nowsy Lalonde retired at the end of the second period. He watched the third session from the fence.

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO J. P. ROBERTSON VETERAN CURLER

WINNIPEG, Feb. 16. — Saturday night's entertainment at the Royal Alexandra hotel marked an epoch in curling history for the Manitoba Curling association, and paid a remarkable tribute to J. P. Robertson, the Grand Old Man of curling, who after thirty years of unremitting service as secretary-treasurer laid down the duties of office. There was a short but fervent address, beautifully illuminated, which Thos. Verner, immediate past-president of the association, read to J. P. Robertson. A four-figure cheque was presented by Walter F. Payne, another old intimate friend of J. P., on behalf of the curlers and old friends. Among those assisting were Hon. T. C. Norris, premier of Manitoba; President Andrew Wilson, of the association; President Elmre White, Duluth, of the Northwestern Curling association; and Vice-President McDonald, of Fort William. On motion of Sherwood Herchmer, of Fernie, B.C., the Birks trophy becomes secondary to the Eaton, the Visitors' event, as the all-comers defeated the city in the primary Saturday 415 to 401. This event was won by all-comers last year for the first time in the history on bonspiel.

VARSITY AND C. P. R. TO MEET TONIGHT

A good game of hockey is expected tonight when the C.P.R. links up with the University. The C.P.R. went down to defeat the last time they met Varsity, but they have considerably strengthened their team since then, and were able to give even the South Side a run for their money with the new line-up. The Varsity septette are scheduled to meet the University of Saskatchewan on Friday night and therefore are keyed up to a high pitch for tonight's contest. The teams will line up as follows:

Varsity—Morris, Smith, McAllister, Blow, Mahaffy, Martin and Cleland.

C. P. R.—Lehman, McQueen, Mitchell, McIntosh, Chisholm, Dunn and Coleman.

AGGIES WIN FROM ARTS IN GOOD GAME

A fast game of hockey was played between the Arts team and the Aggies in the Inter-Faculty League on Saturday afternoon at the University. The game ended with the Arts at the long end of a 5-to-3 score. The Aggies had the edge on the play during the first two periods. In these periods Jacobson and Scottie broke away repeatedly, but an avalanche of goals was saved by good goal-keeping by Kelley, of the Arts team. The last period proved to be the downfall of the Aggies. The Aggie goal-keeper was snowed under by a fusilade of shots, and when the smoke cleared away the Arts were in the lead. The Arts have only one more game to play, having won all except their first game. The line-up:

Aggies—Paulits, Jacobson, Doughty, Davidson, Smith, Brown, Jones.

Arts—Kelley, York, Emery, Turnbull, Gray, Cane, Macdonald.

Goals—Jacobson 3, Emery 1, York, 1, Macdonald 3.

SOUTH SIDERS WIN FROM C.P.R. IN CLOSE GAME

C.P.R., Strengthened by Lehmann, Mitchell and McIntash, Defeat South Side

In one of the closest contests of the season the South Side puck-chasers succeeded on Friday night in defeating the C. P. R. aggregation by the score of 7 to 5.

The C. P. R. team was considerably strengthened by the addition of Lehmann in goal. Lehmann played goal for the Varsity last year and turned aside many a good try by the South Siders This is the position which has caused the C. P. R. team to go down to defeat on several occasions.

With Mitchell on the defence and McIntosh on the forward line the railroaders were able to give Jimmy Smith's league leaders the hardest game they have yet had.

The South Side team was without the services of their speedy rover, Baldy Lynn, who vamoosed to Calgary, where he is playing with the C. C.'s. Baldy is the fourth Edmonton man who has been recruited by the Calgary clubs. Buck Grant, Joe Dussault and Howard Dea being the other three.

The railroaders started out strong and scored in the first two minutes of play and held their lead until a minute before time was called in the first period, when the South Siders evened the score.

The South Side took the lead in the second period when they scored 3 goals to the C. P. R.'s 2. The third period, as usual, saw the South Siders finish strong, when they repeated their performance of the previous period, making the total score 7 to 5.

The teams lined up as follows:—

South Side—Talbot, O'Brien, Stephen, Corrigan, Howie, McLeod and Bowen.

C. P. R.—Lehmann, Mitchell, McQueen, Dunn, McIntosh, Coleman, Chisholm.

Referee—McLean.

Valentine, and many others. The prize for the prettiest costume was awarded to Mrs. C. Ronning, a Japanese lady, while special mention was made of Miss Walker, Miss Williams and Miss Adsett. The prize for the comic costume went to Mrs. Servas, as father-in-law at the bridal party, while Mr. Marshall, attired in his "wedding cake" was awarded the prize for the most original costume. The wedding couple, Miss Souche and Lieut. Heywood, also received a prize.

Much credit is due the president of the Literary Society, Mr. Staley, and the committee for the pleasant evening enjoyed by all who were there.

Principal and Mrs. Keith entertained the students and staff of Alberta Ladies' College at the Allen Theatre on Saturday afternoon to see "The Better 'Ole." On returning to the college refreshments were served.

Alberta Ladies' College was the scene of a most delightful function on Friday evening when a Valentine entertainment was held. The program consisted of a chorus by twenty girls, piano solos, Scottish and Swedish dances, club swinging duets and a play entitled "The Mouse Trap." The entire program was put on by the students of the college, those taking part being Misses Helena Keith, Clara Gibble, Kathleen Keith, Kate Owen, Vera Armstrong, Anna Fraser, Margaret Shanks, May Armstrong, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Centre. The program was brought to a finish by a fine tableau. Twenty dollars were realized by the Y. W. C. A. of the college as a result of the entertainment. The play, "The Mouse Trap," was such a pronounced success that it will probably be repeated at the Convalescent Home.

Concert and Dance to Aid Memorial

A concert and dance was held in St John's school hall, near Spruce Grove, on the evening of Friday, Feb. 14th, by the Winterburn Women's Institute, of which Mrs. Wellbourne is president. The proceeds were in aid of the Memorial Hall Fund. There was a large attendance the receipts at the door amounting to in the neighborhood of $80. The institute was very active in Red Cross work during the war.

The concert program included the following numbers: vocal solo, Mrs. Jones; piano solo, Mrs. Dalling; piano duet, the Misses Pinchbeck; sketch, Wm. Schell and Miss Roth; sketch, Mr. Seddon and Mrs. Baker; recitation, Mr. Finnimore; song, Mr. Broadstack; piano solo, Miss McKinley; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Baker.

Mendelssohn Choir to Perform Gaul's "Holy City"

Alfred Robert Gaul, whose wellkonwn cantata, "The Holy City," is to be performed here February 28th, by the Mendelssohn choir, was born on April 30, 1837, in the town of Norwich, England.

As a young boy he was chorister in Norwich cathedral, afterwards becoming an articled pupil, as was the custom of that time, of Dr. Buck, who was then the official organist of the Norwich cathedral.

Becoming a full fledged organist and choirmaster, Gaul afterward held the post of organist in succession at Fakenham, St. John's, Ladywood, Birmingham and St. Anne's, Edgebaston, taking his degree of Mus. B., at Cambridge in 1863. He wrote many works, mostly in cantata form and some lighter church music, but his best-known work is "The Holy City." This was first performed at the Birmingham musical festival in 1882 and since then, it is no venture to state, there is scarcely a town the world over with any pretensions to musical standing that has not attacked "The Holy City" with varying degrees of success. In the case of the local organization, the Mendelssohn choir, there is little doubt but what their presentation of the work will be successful. Practises all along have been full of promise and the choir will be in fine shape for the final effort. Nothing that will make the concert a huge success is being left out; everything that will make it an enjoyable evening is being arranged for, and the demand for tickets has already commenced.

Four of the finest local singers have been chosen as soloists, and their names and the fullest particulars will be given out in the press and in our advertising columns from day to day, till the concert. It is expected the public will give this purely local organization, with its high aims and endeavors their heartiest encouragement and support.

Valentine Party at Alberta College North

The annual Valentine party of Alberta College North was held in the Commercial hall of the college Friday evening. The arrangements were in the hands of the Students' council and a keen interest was shown by all committees, each endeavoring to make the greatest success of its special work. The rooms were prettily decorated with pennants and college colors; hearts and cupids were everywhere. The fancy dresses of the young ladies were resplendent with valentine colors and made the opening promenade a very pretty number.

The following program had been arranged: "Promenade, Cupid contest Musical Arms, Rooster tournament, Pie Eating contest, Hat Trimming contest (young men only), "Lose your Supper," "Nuts in May," Opening of Valentines, supper, songs, "Good Night Ladies."

At the conclusion of the program a hearty vote of thanks was given to E. M. Shildrick, honorary president of the Literary society, for his efforts in helping to make the evening such a great success. After singing "Auld Lang Syne," "God Save the King" and giving the college "yell," the students dispersed, exclaiming that it was one of the events in their college life that would never be forgotten.

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA NEWS

It is probable that the University of Alberta at the request of the Young Peoples' committee of the U.F.W.A will, through the Department of Extension, put on a course of lectures and exercises on various subjects some connected with agriculture and others of a patriotic character on democracy, good citizenship etc. This course will likely be given at the close of the Sunday school and will last one week. It is intended for young people between the ages of 16 and 25 years, who have through force of circumstances had to discontinue their school education, but who are eager to improve themselves.

Courses of lectures in retail merchandise and the principles of salesmanship will be given under the auspices of the University of Alberta in the latter half of May and the beginning of June. One course will be given in Edmonton and one in Medicine Hat during the time when the Retail Merchants' association hold their convention in that city. Each course will last one week. The lecturer for the courses will be Frank Stockdale of Chicago. Similar courses have been put on by the University of Manitoba and this year this work is being undertaken by the Universities of Saskatchewan and Alberta. Committees of business men in each city will work with the University authorities in regard to the organization of the courses

A vote of the senate of the University has been taken on the proposals of the Dominion government with regard to special assistance to returned soldiers. Approval was expressed by the senate and ratified by the board of governors and the Dominion government authorities have been apprised by telegram that the University of Alberta is ready to underiake the work suggested. Definite word is expected at any time from Ottawa as to just what the duties will be.

The board of examiners for Alberta land surveyors met and made a report on the results of the recent examinations. Recommendations have now been sent out to members of the senate of the University of Alberta by mail and will be announced as soon as the vote of the senate is complete.

On Thursday evening, February 13, the Students' union of the University of Alberta will entertain to dinner the University of Alberta men who have returned from overseas during the past year. About 70 guests are expected. A good toast list has been prepared and it is expected that all will have a most enjoyable time.

No meeting of the Philosophical society of the University of Alberta will be held this month as it has been impossible to arrange for a lecturer. Two lectures, however, will be given March.

At the University service on Sunday morning, February 16th, the speaker will be Mrs. Walter Parlby, president of the U.F.W.A.

The Visual Instruction division of the Department of Extension of the University of Alberta has recently added to the sets of lantern slides the following:

| | |
|---|---|
| Innocents Abroad .......... | 54 slides |
| Abraham Lincoln .......... | 57 slides |
| Sir Walter Scott .......... | 77 slides |
| Domestic Science .......... | 72 slides |
| Social Centres .............. | 102 slides |

NEW YORK STOCKS

By W. ROSS ALGER & CO.

New York, Feb. 15—Stocks opened with a firm tone today, the market soon becoming active and decidedly strong on another broad demand for oils, shippings and some of the motors. Rails moved contrary to the general trend for a time because of pronounced weakness in St. Paul issues, but made appreciable gains later. Features of the oil group were Pan-American Petroleum common and preferred at gains of 4 to 8 points, respectively. Mexican Petroleum and Royal Dutch Oil, Marine preferred and American International Corporation rose 3 points each, General Motors 4 and Stutz Motors 3. Leading steels and equipments advanced 1 to 1½ points. The closing was strong. Sales totalled 400,000 shares. Bonds were steady.

Representative shares again gave way to speculative issues in the first half hour of today's stock market, investment rails and industrials recording no material changes, while oils, shipings and several miscellaneous issues made extra gains of 1 to 5 points. Foremost in the advance were Pan-American, Royal Dutch oils, Mexican Petroleum and Texas company. Distilling and paper issues also indicates further pool activity. The steadiness of United States Steel and related leaders, probably resulted from covering of short commitments over the week-end.

TORONTO STOCKS

TORONTO, Feb. 16.—The tone of stock exchange Saturday morning was, generally speaking, firm, the only notable exception being Brazilian, which, after opening at 51⅝, sold off to 51, closing at this price, a net loss of a point from Friday's close. A small lot of Steel of Canada sold unchanged at 60. The most pronounced strength was shown by Maple Leaf, which ranged between 133 and 133½, closing at the latter quotation with a net gain of 1½. Maple Leaf has now recovered 12 points from its recent low. Smelters moved up ¾ to 25¼, while cement at 65⅝ was up half a point. A sudden demand developed for consumers gas at 152, the recently established level. Toronto railway was firmer at 45¼ as compared with the low on Friday at 43⅝. The war loans were again in fairly brisk demand. Prices remained firm.

MONTREAL STOCKS

MONTREAL, Feb. 16.—The tone of the market for Canadian stocks for Saturday continued generally firm. Shawinigan sold again at 117 the high flyer, with the closing bid at 116¾ unchanged from Friday. Power at 89¼ came within a fraction of the high of a year, closing at 89, was unchanged. The paper group was featured by Laurentide at 200¼, closing at the best a gain of a fraction, making the high price of the year. Steel of Canada changed hands at 60, closing down to 59⅝ bid. The Steamship issues moved in contrary ways, the common being down a fraction to 43 and the preferred to 77¼. Mining companies showed both activity and strength represented by Smelter and Hillcrest, the former selling up to 25½, closing at 25¼, a net gain of a fraction and more stock wanted at 25⅜. Ogilvie sold down 210, a five-point decline. Outside of the 1933 Victory Loans there was little activity in the bond list, but price changes, with one exception, were on the higher side of the markets.

Sales—Shares, 3,206; bonds, $290,500.

Weimar, Feb. 15—(Havas Agency)—At the meeting of the national assembly today Herr Hultze put forward a motion inviting the assembly to adopt a resolution containing a declaration that the German people would never accept a peace of violence and protesting against the "exaggerated" conditions of the armistice as tending to ruin Germany. The resolution also protests against the denial of self-determination to Alsace-Lorraine.

Foch Retorts Sharply.

Amsterdam, Feb. 15—(Havas Agency)—A note containing an insinuation that the occupation of German territory was not due to military superiority, according to the Cologne Zeitung, was handed in recently to the allied armistice commission, by the German delegates and is said to have drawn a very sharp retort on behalf of Marshal Foch at the meeting of the armistice commission of February 7th.

A French general, acting under instructions from Marshal Foch, the newspaper adds, refused to make an answer to the note, and declared that it would be examined only if it was presented in a more courteous form. Gen. von Hammerstein, the leading German military delegate, postponed a declaration in the matter until the receipt of instructions from the German government.

Will Refuse to Demobilize.

Basel, Feb. 15—Count von Brockdorff-Rantzan, the German foreign secretary, in discussing Germany's foreign policy in the new national assembly at Weimar on Friday, declared he had resisted and would continue to resist Allied attempts to make Germany demobilize all her military forces. The task of the German nation as regards foreign affairs might be summed up under two heads, said the foreign secretary, of which the first was the ending of the state of war and the second the establishment of normal relations with other peoples.

"Unfortunately," he continued, "Germany's voluntary disarmament has not softened our enemies, who recently attempted to settle on the basis of disarmament questions undoubtedly appertaining to the peace conference. I have repulsed and will continue to repulse these attempts looking to the dissolution of all our old military forces and the substitution of new republican troops for the old peace army which had not been used in the east.

"Germany has shouldered the consequences of defeat and is determined to observe the conditions agreed upon with our adversaries. These conditions imply the complete renunciation of the political aims of the old Germany. We are ready to accept restrictions upon our sovereignty, the compulsory submission of our differences with other states to an international court of arbitration and the renunciation of our armament if our old adversaries and future neighbors submit to the same restrictions."

READJUSTMENT OF FINANCE NEXT LARGE QUESTION

Three Different Organizations Are Now Engagd in Handling This Problem

Paris, Feb. 15—With the subject of the league of nations now out of the way for some time to come, the biggest problem before the peace conference at present is believed to be the re-adjustment of the world's financial and economic relations, which have been torn to pieces by more than four years of war.

Three different organizations have been created to deal with these subjects and they have been so hard at work while the conference has been struggling with the central idea of the league of nations that already some of their conclusions are ready for consideration as soon as the conference is wiling to receive the reports, although the last body created in this connection dates back only to February 8.

British Are Pleased.

London, Feb. 15—The London newspapers generally praise the draft of the league of nations as presented to the peace conference on Friday by President Wilson. Many hail it as the most important and most memorable document produced in the history of the world and congratulate the framers.

The general plan is praised by the morning newspapers which express satisfaction over the "sound start" made, although several point out that considerable work has yet to be done before the ideals of the league can be fully realized.

Paris Not Enthusiastic.

Paris, Feb. 5—Comment on the constitution of the league of nations as presented at Friday's plenary session of the peace conference, Paris newspapers reveal little enthusiasm over the shape the project has taken. The Figaro says:—

"The commission wisely decided not to ravish tomorrow from the eternal and confined itself to making safe the present. The mystic society of nations has, then, become a league of the five great powers which beat Germany and which, having conquered, mean to consolidate both victory and peace. A close alliance will result between the United States, England, France, Italy and Spain.

Alfred Capus, editor of the Figaro, says, in addition, that "the future is opened to a better settlement, but that naturally is as yet vague and nebulous."

Americans Approve.

New York, Feb. 15—American press comment on the covenant of the league of nations shows for the most part approval mixed with warning not to expect too much from the league at the beginning, but expressing hope that the league would ultimately develop into an international force making for world peace. The New York World says:—

"'The impossible will happen tomorrow,' said Disraeli and the impossible has happened. The constitution of the league of nations is a living, organic fact."

DRESSMAKER SAVED FROM OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time.

Ithaca, N.Y.—"Three years ago I suffered from pains in my right side, so severe that I could not raise my feet from the floor. Pains would shoot down my limbs and through my back, and the doctor said I had an abscess. I was in bed two weeks with an icebag on my side and expected any day that I might have to go to a hospital for an operation. A friend came to see me and told me of your wonderful medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it, and after taking six bottles I feel well and strong, do my own work and do dressmaking for others. I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and recommend it to others who suffer with female trouble. It is a Godsend to ailing women, and you may use my name at any time."—Mrs. PERMILLA HULSIZER, 218 E. Fall St., Ithaca, N.Y.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

HIGH PRICES AT STOCKYARDS WEEK'S FEATURE

American Buyers Have Left Standing Orders for Large Amount of Stock

During the past week the feature of the stock markets in Edmonton would seem to be the high prices paid for cow stuff. In fact everything from beef to veal would seem to be up from a quarter to a half dollar. Beef is still being bought for further finishing in the United States and the prices paid for these heavy feeders is as high as $13.50, and the demand of the American buyers for steers is such that local buyers are not able to get what they want. These American buyers have left standing orders on the market for heavy feeders and these are being filled as fast as the animals come into the markets. There are also a number of farmers from Northern Saskatchewan as well as Northern Alberta, who find they have a superabundance of feed, and instead of selling stock as they woud do in a normal year, they are buying to use up their feed.

W. J. Forran of Atland, Sask., was on the yards Thursday looking for feeders, and reports that there was any amount of feed in his district. A number of Calgary speculators were also on the market this week.

Cattle receipts for the week were 1,515, including 70 calves.

The highest prices paid was $13.50, but there was very little beef offered at all, and in fact the animals that were sold at this price were going to the Western States for finishing.

Cows and heifers were selling very much stronger than previously and this is possibly due to the fact that local buyers are being scared off from steers owing to the high prices that they have to pay and are buying she stuff instead. There was considerable movement in cow bill sales.

Bulls and oxen are a little stronger in sympathy with the activity of the market all along the line.

One particularly good bull sold for $9.50 and weighed 850 lbs.

Sheep

Sheep are selling about the same price as last week for fat stuff. Breeding ewes have been bringing some good prices, as high as $20 a piece being paid. Receipts for the week were 115, a good many of these going into the north country.

Hogs

Hog receipts were 995, but prices are steadily climbing again. The close this week was $16.50, a full $1.50 higher than last week.

U.F.A. BOARD HAS CONFERENCE WITH GOV'T

Assistance for seed grain buying will be discontinued as soon as Alberta has had one more good crop, in the opinion of those members of the government which met the delegation from the executive of the U. F. A. at the government buildings on Saturday morning. Hon Duncan Marshall stated that the present was an unusual time, in that farmers had been urged to plant wheat to the full extent of their capacity and to sell as much as possible, and also that the last couple of years had been bad ones so far as crop failure was concerned. He stated that farmers who never pretended to grow anything but green feed came year after year and asked for assistance from the government in buying seed, and he claimed that if the farmers could not grow their own seed, or grow something with which they could buy their seed, either the country was better without them, or else the country was no good. He called back the fact that on a bush farm in Ontario some years ago, when they had been frozen out, or for some other reason did not have seed, they had gone into the bush and cut down timber and taken it to the mills for a very small return and get money for seed A member of the delegation stated that there were none of the big hardwood trees here from which farmers could get their day's pay for the cutting and hauling, but the minister asserted that there were ways for a man with a team to get out and earn much better money here, that were not open to the Ontario pioneer at all. The members of the government were of the opinion that it was a plain business proposition and that the farmer should be able to protect himself so far as seed was concerned just as much as a dry goods merchant should protect himself over a lean year and no one expected a merchant to get assistance to buy his spring goods if he had had a bad year.

They were agreed, however, that for the present, assistance should still be given to farmers to purchase seed, but after one more good crop here, it was not likely they would get government assistance.

The chiropractors came in for strong support from the farmer representatives also, and while the members of the government appeared willing to allow men properly qualified, to have leave to practice in the province, there seemed no way of defining such, in face of the fact that it was possible to get chiropractors' certificates by paying a fee and taking a mail order course. Either it would be impossible to protect them stated the minister of health, or else training meant nothing, and it would be foolish to expect the medical doctors to take rigorous examinations and courses. The delegation was strongly of the opinion, however, that something should be done to allow this profession, which was doing so much to alleviate the sufferings that the medical doctors had failed to cure.

Health Legislation

Mrs. Parlby asked in connection with the health legislation that some change in the act might be made allowing municipalities or groups of municipalities, to hire a public health nurse, should they so desire, and the minister was in favor of this. He was also in favor of giving nurses special training in obstetrics, and that they might be given authority to act as midwives in the country districts. There were such courses given at Columbia University and at McGill, which so far as he knew, were very satisfactory.

The great trouble would be to get nurses, and he did not think that the local hospitals would give such a course. As they were private institutions they could not be compelled to do so against their will. It was also suggested that the hospitals be encouraged to drop the age limit at which they would take in probationers for the nursing classes. At present the fact that they could not enter till they were 21 brought down the number of girls to take up this work, since between the time they would have left school and the age at which they could start their training, some three or four years would elapse, and they were very likely to have taken up some other line during that period.

Various technicalities in connection with the hail insurance, and so on were also discussed.

Personnel of Deputation.

Representing the U.F.A. executive were President Wood, Sec. Higginbotham, Mrs. Walter Parlby, Paul Baker Rice Sheppard, H. Breenfield and W. D. Trego. In the absence of the premier, they were received by Hon. J. R. Boyle, Hon. Geo. P. Smith, Hon. A. J Mackay, Hon. Duncan Marshall and Hon. J. L. Cote.

At the afternoon session of the U.F.A. executive with the government the farmers' delegates asked that the educational tax (levied in districts that have not a school) be spent entirely on consolidation. They also brought up the matter of supervision of the play hours, but the minister saw many difficulties in forcing the teacher to stay at the school for this purpose. He thought much of the difficulty would be overcome, however, if they established the hot lunch system at the schools.
